NEWS FROM TINTAGEL PARISH COUNCIL

SEAGULL PROOF SACKS

Cornwall Council has recently trialled seagull proof sacks in a number of areas. These sacks are for the containment of domestic household refuse which is not put out in bins. Household refuse should be bagged as usual and the seagull proof sack can hold up to the equivalent of 3 black bags of rubbish. Loose rubbish will not be collected. The sacks can help you protect your rubbish from seagulls and other vermin and will help reduce the amount of litter on your street. It is easy to store between collections and has proved to be very effective in seaside areas. Further information can be found at www.cornwall.gov.uk

The sacks are now available to purchase from Tintagel Parish Council at a cost of £3.50 each.

If you are interested in purchasing a sack, or know a neighbour who has a problem with storage of refuse, please contact the Parish Clerk.

USE OF CAR PARK IN TREVENA SQUARE AND SPACES IN VISITOR CENTRE CAR PARK FOR PERMIT HOLDERS

There is no excuse for not displaying a valid permit if you qualify for one (you will need to confirm that you pay Council Tax for a property in the Parish of Tintagel by production of your current Council Tax Bill). This matter has been the subject of articles in previous editions of the Parish Newsletter and a Permit Application Card will be reproduced regularly in this Parish Newsletter. If you require a new permit, please complete and return the copy of the card below to the Clerk, along with a stamped addressed envelope, and a new permit will be issued. YOU WILL RECEIVE A FINE IF YOU DO NOT DISPLAY A VALID PERMIT, IF THE PERMIT IS NOT VISIBLE OR YOU STAY OVER THE PERMITTED TIME

Tintagel Visitor Centre

Members of the Parish Council and volunteers at the Centre would like to thank all those local businesses who supported us in 2013. Their support helped the Visitor Centre to break even after only 10 months. Councillors and Visitor Centre Volunteers are now working on the Advertising Scheme for 2014. Once again a Guide will be produced for 2014. Further exciting news is that we will see the launch of a new website both for the Parish Council has given the go-ahead to a Cornish company to begin designing the new website. The website will give local businesses further opportunities to advertise. It is anticipated that the new guide will be printed and published in January 2014. All businesses should by now have received details of advertising opportunities. If you are a business and you are interested in advertising at the Centre/in the brochure, and have not received any information, please contact Sue Moth, Parish Clerk.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO VOLUNTEER AT THE VISITOR CENTRE ?

Tintagel Visitor Centre is manned almost entirely by volunteers from the parish council and local people. The volunteers work for the satisfaction of building our community, assisting the thousands of tourists that visit Tintagel and the surrounding area and helping our beautiful village to thrive.

We are in need of a few more volunteers particularly during periods of sickness and holidays. So if you'd like to be involved, whether you can offer just 1 or 2 hours a week or a morning or afternoon shift, we would welcome you to join our team. And although it's a worthy activity, it is great fun too!

If you are interested, please complete and return the Volunteer Registration Form overleaf or pop into the Centre for a chat.

TINTAGEL VISITOR CENTRE – VOLUNTEER REGISTRATION FORM

Completed forms will be held by the Parish Council. Information provided will be treated as confidential and will be used to identify the skills and availability of volunteers to help the Parish Council develop a management plan for the future.

NEWS FROM COUNCILLOR GLENTON BROWN

Cornwall Council gets back into full business activities again after the August holiday period for many of the staff. Councillors are called for the first of a long series of budget meetings which in February will arrive at what the final proposals are for the year 2014/2015. It is the intention of a new Cabinet to give as many people a chance to look in on the suggestions that are being brought forward, and the suggestions you would like to make and with that in mind Cabinet members will be travelling around the County during September and October.

I draw your attention to October 9th when there will be a Budget Consultation Community Network Meeting at Camelford; you will need to watch out for details re the actual venue and time.

The Cabinet will carefully go through many areas that need funding and you will have the opportunity to raise the concerns you feel most strongly about, like tackling crime, health and well-being, Cornwall's economy in general, children's early help, environmental issues, devolution and localism, transport and highways, welfare and the benefits system to list a few.

A survey is currently being carried out in North and East Cornwall by the East Cornwall Local Action Group which seeks to support projects of small businesses particularly related to rural economy and charitable ventures. If you feel you have an interest that merits some grant aid then please get in touch with the East Cornwall Action Group Secretary, Linda Emmett, who may be contacted at 3-5 Barn Lane, Bodmin, PL31 1LZ

Also during the month of September, the position of Chief Executive Officer will be advertised and interviews arranged in the hope that by mid-October an announcement will be made as to who he or she will be.

Again I have written to Lord Howe re the dentistry situation in our Camelford network area and am still awaiting a reply. It also goes without saying that Dan Rogerson M.P. is been pursuing this also.

My Community Budget is again on offer (unfortunately I have no Highway budget this year) for the coming year, if you have a community venture that you feel needs some help please get in touch with me.

If I can be of any help please contact me on 01840 770302 or gbrown@cornwall.gov.uk

Do You Remember....Journey Into Space?

Even in the 1950's, our country was interested in space travel. A series on the Light Programme blasted off in September 1953 and it was called 'Journey Into Space'. It was intended that the programme would only last eight episodes, to be broadcast once a week on Monday evenings at 7.30pm but its popularity meant that it actually ran for four series. The series ran until 1958 and was translated into 17 different languages!. The once a week broadcast was soon changed into twice a week. There were 62 episodes of the show and it was the very last evening radio programme that had a larger audience than those watching television. The stars were: Captain (Jet) Morgan (Andrew Faulds), 'Doc Matthews (Guy Kingsley-Pointer, 'Mitch' Mitchell (Don Sharpe), replaced in 1955 by David Williams and the radio operator was Lemmy Barnett (Originally David Kossoff, who left after a few months and was replaced by Alfie Bass.). Most other parts were played by David Jacobs, who later became known as a Disc Jockey and presenter of Juke Box Jury on television. The haunting sound effects and striking music, all combined to make Journey Into Space a true radio classic. There are very few recordings of this wonderful programme available today but who knows that somewhere, in an old dusty cupboard, the BBC may be discover some copies, As a young man I found the programme very exciting and unforgettable

Do You Remember... Music While You Work

The programme was a medley of popular tunes, played by a different band each day, and began in the dark days at the end of June 1940 - between the fall of France and the Battle of Britain - as a ploy to keep workers contented and more productive.

The twice daily broadcasts(one for the night shift), were designed to raise spirits and maintain morale and were played to factory workers over their tannoy systems. For a time it went out every weekday but later on Sundays too. By 1945 over 9,000 factories were tuning in. The Programme was first broadcast on the Home Service and Forces Programme and was given by Dudley Bevan at the BBC Theatre Organ. Orchestras included Geraldo, Geiger, Jimmy Leach and the BBC Military Band. Launched in the war the programme carried on happily into peace time.

I worked in the Laboratories at Bush Radio Ltd in Plymouth in the 1950s and the factory workers, around 2,000 of them, enjoyed Music While You Work at 10.30am and 3.45 pm every day. I can still hear them singing away throughout the two daily shows.

The last programme was broadcast on the final day of the Light Programme in 1967, with Jimmy Leach and his Organologists.

A wonderful programme, particularly in the War Years, not only enjoyed by factory workers but by housewives in their homes.

In 1990. the show was resurrected for a week on Radio 2. It opened with the Phil Tate Orchestra – heard on the show many times over a seventeen year period - which had reassembled especially for the event. In 1963 it returned for a six week series, again on Radio 2. That marvellous tune that introduced the programme each day was 'Calling All Workers', written by Eric Coates. Great memories of a programme loved by so many.

Householders in Cornwall are urged to register now to vote in European Parliamentary elections next year

Cornwall Council is calling on local people to register now to make sure they can have their say and vote in the European Parliamentary elections taking place in May 2014.

The Council is required to produce a new and accurate list of voters each year which then stays in force for the following twelve months. This process usually takes place in the Autumn but is being held later than usual this year following a decision by the Government.

Electoral registration forms are being posted out on 1 October to all 258,000 households in Cornwall. This list of voters will then be used as the basis for the European Parliamentary elections in May 2014.

"The new electoral register will be published on 17 February 2014 and only people who are on the register will be able to vote" explained Denise Holwill, Cornwall's Electoral Services Manager. "It is vital that people complete and return the form as soon as possible so their names can be included on the register and tax payer's money can be spent most efficiently."

The forms contain the details of all the people who are currently registered to vote at that address. If none of the details on the form have changed, the householder can either sign the form and return it in the pre-paid envelope provided or register electronically by:

- Phone
- Registering online via a website
- Sending a text message

Further details, including the security code that householders need to quote to register electronically, are given on the form. Registering electronically is not only the quickest and easiest method, but also the cheapest, thereby helping the Council to save taxpayers' money. If any details on the form have changed, people should cross through the names of anyone who no longer lives at the address, amend any mistakes or add the names of anyone new who is eligible to vote. They then need to sign the form and return it – either in the pre-paid envelope or by dropping it into any Council office or one stop shop.

Denise and her team hope that as many people as possible will complete and return their forms as soon as they receive them. Otherwise a reminder will have to be sent out in early November to any households who have not yet replied – which will cost the Council additional money. In addition a team of over 100 canvassers will then visit any households who have still not registered in December and January (except from 23 December to 1 January) to help people fill in their form. "People are required by law to provide the information which is asked for in the forms" said Denise. "While most people respond quickly, we always have a number of households who do not return their forms. If people look out for the forms and respond promptly then they can help to make savings which can go towards other essential services".

Anyone does not receive a form is asked to contact the Council's electoral registration team on 0300 123 1115.

Tintagel Surf Life Saving Club

It's been a great summer with plenty of sunny days and good sea conditions for practising our sea skills and rescues. Several Nipper and Junior members are now ready to be assessed for their Awards; we thank all the regular helpers and senior members for their commitment and support that enables so many to benefit from attending the Club sessions and improve their water skills.

Just a few more weeks left at the Beach before we will return to the swimming pool for our winter training sessions. We have a busy time planned with the Camel "fun" competition at Harlyn Bay this weekend, a Club Fun day at Trebarwith for all members and their families and the infamous Night Hike to round off the season.

Pictured are some of our members who entered the Padstow to Rock swim earlier this year, raising funds for Marie Curie.

Visit our website or facebook page to see what we get up to at our training sessions.

TINTAGEL CHRISTMAS LIGHTS

We would like to thank everybody for their support at our two cream teas in the W.I. Hall. Spar, Pengenna, Bradleys for donations and all the lovely ladies for their tasty cakes.

Our raffle was a great success with 7 winners. A big thank you to the seven local businesses for their donations – Cornishman, Crossbow, Deli-licious, Bossiney House, Tintagel Arms, The Woottons and Lanhydrock.

We are always on the lookout for new members or offers of help or fresh ideas.

Old Post Office news

It's been a glorious summer in Tintagel with thousands of visitors coming to explore the Old Post Office – enjoying the cool of the interior on hot days and relaxing in the garden.

The summer holidays were action-packed with free children's activities every week, including rag-rugging, wild art and bug hunting with our rangers. The National Trust's '50 things to do before you're 11 and ¾' challenge has been taken up enthusiastically by our younger visitors and has been really popular.

Our cloam oven has been fired up recently, too, with expert bakers from the Old Post Office, Cotehele and our neighbours at Charlie's Café producing delicious bread, cakes and scones.

Writing this on a wet and windy September day, summer seems a distant memory, but milder weather is forecast, and, more importantly, we've still got plenty happening before the end of the season on the 3rd November. Until the 29th September, there is a fantastic display of costumes through the ages in the house, from the Middle Ages through to the Victorian period. Each room has information about the different eras with gorgeous costumes and some surprising facts – did you know that bras were around more than 500 years ago?

October sees the return of our splendidly spooky Halloween Fright Night, on Thursday 31st October, of course. Booking is essential as places are limited (contact details below). Prices are £4 for children with £2 for accompanying adults. The ghostly goings on start at 6:30pm and finish at 8:30pm. There will be spooky stories and games along with a prize for the most frightfully dressed! During October half-term we'll also be running Halloween themed crafts for children.

We hope to see you there!

Further details in December newsletter

Since the last magazine we have had a couple of very busy Cream Tea Days, when not only were there cream teas on offer, but light lunches as well or just the cup of coffee.

Then there was the very successful exhibition of members work over the Carnival Weekend, and a big thank you to all those who brought work to be displayed, to those who displayed it, and those who staffed it, or made tea/coffee over those days.

We have had some very successful Craft Days when some of our members were selling what they had made whether it was knitting, cooking, or painting to name but a few, but there was always the opportunity for a cup of coffee or tea and a piece of cake.

At our last meeting Barry Cole told us all about his training as a paramedic in London. I think that we were all surprised at the length of the training and what he had to learn, in fact I heard one member say 'it was almost like being a doctor'. If this seems as if it was a bit heavy, it wasn't with many funny stories on the way. And there was also time for catching up with one another after the summer holidays, with the usual tea, coffee and biscuits.

Coming up we have on October 21st Susan Swanepoel who will be sharing her Memoirs of a Bra Designer. This could be very interesting for many of us, and will give us the opportunity to ask those questions about bra's that we have always wanted to ask.

Then in November on the 18th we have Kirstin Hunt who will be talking about Women in Ancient Egypt, having produced some Egyptian costumes for the last carnival, it will be very interesting to hear what she has to say.

Please do come and join us for either or both of these meetings, and there is always time to talk to each other over the cup of tea or coffee. If you are new to Tintagel, we meet in the Gift House, next to the Old Post Office, the third Tuesday of each month at 7.30p.m. come and join us, it's a way a making friends or new friends in the village.

For further information contact our President Phyllis Reddock on 779378.

Sue Ede
