NEIGHBOURHOOD DEVELOPMENT PLANS

A Neighbourhood Development Plan is important as it enables local residents to have control of the environment and development in the local area. Without an approved plan there is virtually nothing the community can do to influence the development of housing, infrastructure, amenities and the environment. However, without the active involvement and support of local residents it will not be possible to complete the Plan, obtain approval and ensure that it is embodied in the Cornwall Council Plan as a legal document that has to be recognised in all future development approvals. Tintagel Parish Council will be mailing every household in the Parish shortly explaining the Plan along with a very short response form inviting offers of help. Do you have Project Management skills, IT skills or are you interested in helping to gather information to produce the plan? Creating a Neighbourhood Development Plan is a local community led process by the people for the people. Tintagel Parish Council cannot proceed with a Neighbourhood Development Plan without a high level of support and community involvement from the people of the parish.

THE ROTARY CLUB OF CAMELFORD
CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The President of the Rotary Club of Camelford presenting the Citizen of the Year Award and Citation to Gladys Cook from Tintagel for her services to the community.

Gladys with her team of helpers has raised thousands of pounds over the years for many charities, local and overseas.

The Rotary Club of Camelford honoured a lady of Tintagel recently by choosing her as their Citizen of the Year for 2013. The Rotary Club make a presentation to someone in their area who they consider has provided exceptional service to the community.

At their Christmas dinner they presented the award to Gladys Cook. This lady has over the past years been instrumental in raising many thousands of pounds for numerous charities in the village, throughout the county and also the country. Gladys has lived in the village since she married David and moved here from Michaelstow over 50 years ago. It is well known that if you wish to have an event that requires food in particular, Gladys is the person you need at the helm. She will always say that nothing could be achieved without the help of all the helpers but as we all know the ship needs a captain at its head. The charities that have been helped are too numerous to list but range from the local Chapel to the Royal British Legion for which she was Poppy Appeal organiser for over 30 years, Shelterbox, many cancer charities, hospices, etc.

Tintagel is proud to have one of its citizens named as Citizen of the Year. Well done Gladys.

TINTAGEL PRIMARY SCHOOL

Welcome back to everyone after the Christmas break which all seems so long ago. Our Christmas Production of "The Magical Christmas Jigsaw" was a great success which everyone thoroughly enjoyed. The children decided that this year the collection from the performances and the raffle would go to Shelterbox. With an extra collection on the last day of term we managed to raise enough to purchase our own Shelterbox which we will be able to track! A huge thank you to everyone who donated.

Class 3 and 4 went on our annual visit to the pantomime which this year was Cinderella at the Hall for Cornwall. They also visited Eirenikon for carol singing. On the last day of term children played party games and discoed in the afternoon as well as receiving a special visitor to the school...Father Christmas!

Since our return to school in January we have already started our new intense daily swimming lessons at Camelford Leisure Centre. We would also like to remind you to make use of the Free Family Primary Swims which are on Mondays 3:45-5pm. These are open to any family who has a child attending any feeder primary for Sir James Smiths School.

We are also very pleased to welcome Sofie Lowe back to the office after her maternity leave, congratulations to the Lowe family on their new arrival! Thank you to Susan Chapman from Delabole Primary School for providing maternity cover.

TINTAGEL CHRISTMAS LIGHTS

On behalf of the Christmas Lights Working Group I would like to thank the people who turned out on such a nasty night for the switching on of the village Christmas lights. Once again it was a great success. Thanks go to Joseph and Mary, Neil Caddy, Pirate FM who once again switched on the lights, Michael Parsons, Vicar of Tintagel and Rev. Bryan Ede, Tintagel Orpheus Male Voice Choir, Camelford Town Band, The Cornishman Inn for use of the lounge bar for refreshments donations by Pengenna Pasties. Donations of trees from Stuart Cornelius and Mr. Nankivell, Dean and Tawn Dangar for fetching and putting of the trees, Ted the electrician, Nick for donating sweets, all helpers on the barbecue, and the judges of the competition. To Tintagel Parish Council who fund the erection and taking down of the lights and the supply of the cups which were won by the Cornishman Inn for best dressed pub, Camping and Leisure, Tintagel for best dressed shop and Marlyn, Danmore Close for best dressed house and garden. Simon and Julie, Spar Shop, Tintagel for donations of the bike for the raffle. Unfortunately, due to the inclement weather the raffle was not drawn. On clearing up at the end of such a very wet evening, it was found that the boards and draw tickets had been mislaid. The draw will now take place on the 14th February, so if any person who bought tickets, could please come forward to any member of the Lights Group, all names will be put in a draw.

A Happy New Year to Everyone,

*Elaine Flew,
Tintagel Christmas Lights PR*

Tintagel Surf Life Saving Club

Pictured are the people who were brave enough to take part in our New Years Day Dip. There was an excellent turn out this year with Club Members joined by locals and visitors spurred on by plenty of support from the spectators. Afterwards we warmed up with Mulled Wine, Hot Chocolate and warm mince pies in the Club House. This was an excellent start to 2014 when we will be celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Club.

This year we have had an influx of new members, with an increased Nipper section we are now able to have 36 members, however we still operate a waiting list for this group. In you are interested in joining the Club please call our Chairman, Les Freke on 01840 770928 or visit our website or Facebook page for details of our activities. Winter training sessions are well attended and have included a trip to Florider, weekly training at the pool, multi-sports sessions and (despite colder temperatures) the Juniors have continued to train in the sea when possible.

A huge thank you to Sarah Coates and the organisers from the BIG SWIM CORNWALL (Port Gaverne to Port Isaac - please visit www.thebigswimcornwall.co.uk for details of this year's swim) who have recently donated £900 to our club, for helping with safety cover at the 2013 swim.

Future events: The Annual General Meeting and presentation are Awards will be held on Sunday 26th January at 4pm, The Mill House, Trebarwith and please look out for the details of events commemorating our 50th Year.

Do You Remember Itma?

I loved ITMA!. On a Thursday evening during the War years and after, in Tintagel, I would listen every Thursday evening from 8.30pm till 9.00pm, to my favourite radio programme. I can remember that Sunday evening January 9th 1949, when on the 6 o'clock news on the BBC Home Service, the announcer said 'The death is announced of Mr Thomas Handley, the comedian'. I said to my parents that can't be Tommy Handley but sadly it was. Tommy was only 56 years, 11 months and 23 days old. He died of a Brain Haemorrhage.

He had just celebrated the 310th performance of Itma and seemed to be his usual bubbly self. The show ran from July 1939 to January 6th 1949, with short breaks.

I am sure those who lived through the difficult war years thoroughly enjoyed their weekly topical radio show and it cheered the country up. It was quick fire comedy with an array of larger than life comic characters. Those characters included Mr Mopp, Colonel Chinstrap, Funf, Mona Lott and Fusspot. Amongst the cast were Jack Train, Deryk Gylar and Maurice Denham (who played the Char Lady, Mrs Lola Tickle). Catchphrases were a critical part of the show and do you remember 'Can I Do Yer Now Sir?' (Mrs Mopp), 'I Don't Mind If I Do' (Colonel Chinstrap), 'Ta-ta For Now or TTFN as it was better known (also Mrs Mopp), 'It's Me Noives' (Lefty), 'It's Being So Cheerful That Keeps Me Going' (Mona Lott), After You Claude – No, After you Cecil' and 'Zis Is Funf Speaking' (Jack Train).

Itma's brilliance was a combination of the star. Tommy Handley, and the writer Ted Kavanagh. It was he who took the title from a phrase invented by the Daily Express in its headlines about Herr Hitler-'IT'S THAT MAN AGAIN'

Sir William Haley, then the BBC's Director General, came to the microphone on the Thursday following Tom's death, and made a very simple and moving speech. In it he finished with the words 'There will never be anyone quite like That Man again'... he was so right. In those days the humour was gentle and funny. Unlike the majority of so called comedians today, who think if foul language is not used, they would not be so funny. How pathetic, and I wonder what Tommy Handley would have thought of them!!

Tintagel Sea Angling Club Newsletter

<http://www.facebook.com/TintagelSeaAnglingClub>

A happy New Year to you all from everyone at Tintagel Sea Angling Club.

Sea temperatures have just dipped below double figures at 9⁰C at the time of writing which is relatively mild for January. The usual winter species are present and whiting dab, codling, haddock, coalfish and flounder are all being recorded around our shores.

The Fish of the month winner in November was Iain Mackay with a new club boat record haddock of 4lb 12 ½ ozs. Nigel Rundle won the flatfish of the month in December with a flounder of 2lb 2ozs. The end of year results are now complete and Nigel won boat angler of the year, shore angler of the year and the overall angler of the year. A full roll of honour will be posted in the next journal newsletter following the presentation evening.

Iain with his new club boat record haddock of 4lb 12 ½ ozs

Tintagel SAC held their Annual General Meeting on Tuesday 7th January 2014 at the Wootons Hotel, Tintagel. It was extremely well attended and everyone is looking forward to the new season with an increased number of boat trips and club weekend matches. We have again affiliated to both the Angling Trust <http://www.anglingtrust.net/> and the Cornish Federation of Sea Anglers who have a new website at <http://cornishfed.weebly.com/> New members are always welcome.

The efforts of Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall with his "Fish Fight" achieved over 870,000 signatures and changed Europe's fishery laws. The European Parliament has rubber-stamped the new Common Fisheries Policy which came into force on January 1st. This is a fantastic step taken towards ending fish discards at sea. Quite a result for people power and policy making. If you want to find out more please visit <http://www.fishfight.net/>

Nigel with his winter bass of 7Lb

The Cornish Federation of Sea Anglers has also been active in the area of conservation and fisheries protection during 2013. They have reviewed the species list and made several changes including raising the minimum landing size of bass to 3lb. They have also submitting a petition to the Cornwall Inshore Fisheries Conservation Authority requesting the prohibition of all entanglement, enmeshing and surround netting in Cornish waters inside the ten metre depth contour as per Chart Datum. The petition attracted fantastic support from the public and particular thanks go to Dave Williams and all the staff at Camping Sport & Leisure of Tintagel who hosted the petition locally.

The club will be holding there annual presentation evening on Friday 7th February at the Wootons Hotel, Tintagel from 7.30pm. This is an informal evening and anyone interested is most welcome to attend. Our guest speaker this year is the esteemed David Robson (nom de plume). Forthcoming events include month long specie competitions during January, February and March.

The big tides in February are on the 1st with the full moon on the 14th. In March the big tides are on the 2nd the full moon is on the 16th and the new moon is on the 1st with a black moon on the 30th when sunrise will be at 6.05am and sunset at 18.49pm.

The next general meeting will be held on Tuesday 4th February at the Wootons Hotel at 7.30pm.

Good luck and be safe

Nigel.

Jo Burgess, House and Visitor Services Manager

'Every six seconds, somebody contacts Samaritans'. An incredible statement that shows the importance of our organisation.

Cornwall Samaritans was established back in the early 70's and has gone from strength to strength, in fact last year nearly 53,000 callers contacted us at our branch in Treyew Road, Truro. So who are we and what do we do?

All Samaritans operate on the guiding principles of the founder Chad Varah. By active listening, exploring feelings, options and support, the caller will hopefully find their distress reduced and have a better understanding of their situation. Samaritans don't give advice or impose their personal views all in complete and absolute confidence. Samaritans are just ordinary people who have undergone intensive training enabling them to listen actively. It's not work for everyone but obviously it can be very rewarding work.

People contact us when things are getting to them and remember you don't have to be feeling suicidal to call us. We're here for everyone, whatever your problems and you can talk to a volunteer whenever you like. We're here 24 hours a day every single day of the year.

So how do you contact us either as a caller or as a potential volunteer ? We'd love to hear from you either on our local tel.number 01872 277277 or the national helpline 08457 909090 or by email jo@samaritans.org. Remember Samaritans are always there for you every night and day.

TINTAGEL GARDEN CLUB

Our annual cheese, wine and quiz night was held on 6th December; the questions are now set by last year's winning team, so we can be in for a 'challenge', and indeed we were -with many of us, at the end of the evening, scuttling home to our reference books on all the basic things we should have known, especially about

Tintagel! The quiz was again ably conducted by John Stratton, and Eve judged the photo competition, 'My Cornwall', which was won by Diana Mills, with her image of a great craggy rock and swirling sea off our dramatic coast. The successful evening ended with a raffle, which included a sumptuous hamper.

Our A G M and dinner was held at The Bossiney House Hotel on 18th January; our retiring chairperson, Pat Osborne, thanked all those who had helped to make her time in office enjoyable, and all those who had contributed to a year of interesting speakers and memorable garden visits.

Finally, when the new committee had been elected, there being no other business, we then partook of a delicious buffet, for which the hotel management and staff were rightly applauded. The buzz of conversation grew ever louder as the social side progressed, until the last guests left getting on for midnight.

Our first speaker for 2014-- Friday 14 February, Tintagel Social Hall at 7.30pm- Mick Martin on Snowdrops and twin scaling division.

CRICKET CLUB

YOUTH CRICKET

In 2013 Tintagel Cricket Club resurrected its Youth Section to progress children to adult Cricket. We currently have over 30 Under 13 year olds of mixed gender attending an hour and a half coaching session on a Monday evening throughout the summer. These sessions are taken by fully qualified coaches who impart their knowledge and have received a great response from the kids.

In 2014 we will run winter coaching at Tintagel Community Primary School (details to follow) and once summer arrives will move back to the Cricket Club. Sessions are only a pound each plus a club joining fee.

We plan to coach surrounding Primary Schools and have been invited by the "Chance to shine" National Project to inject extra funding into coaching at primary schools and the club to improve children's skills and give them an introduction to the game.

Anyone interested in these sessions should contact 01840 770029 for details.

Youth Cricket Coaching At Tintagel Cricket Club. Photo taken on Monday August 5th 2013 at Tintagel Cricket Club. Clive Ades, of Tintagel Cricket Club, has organised some coaching for the youngsters over the school holidays every Monday. Pictured are those helping to run the sessions and the children who attended. Clive Ades reports: Tintagel Cricket Club continued its Youth Cricket coaching programme with a full day of Cricketing games and fun during the summer holiday. 24 girls and boys aged between 5 & 12 attend the club to work with qualified coaches on their batting and fielding skills. The day followed the success of a recent schools Cricket afternoon attended by over 60 children from surrounding Primary Schools. The club's aim is to get the children to a level where they can compete in competitions for the 2014 season. Tintagel also holds a coaching session from 6pm - 7.30pm on Monday evenings in the summer, so bring your children along or call 01840 770029 for details. Picture David Flower

SEAGULL PROOF SACKS

Ideal to help with the secure and pest-free storage of refuse, especially through the summer months

Cornwall Council has recently trialled seagull proof sacks in a number of areas. These sacks are for the containment of domestic household refuse which is not put out in bins. Household refuse should be bagged as usual and the seagull proof sack can hold up to the equivalent of 3 black bags of rubbish. Loose rubbish will not be collected. The sacks can help you protect your rubbish from seagulls and other vermin and will help reduce the amount of litter on your street. It is easy to store between collections and has proved to be very effective in seaside areas. Further information can be found at www.cornwall.gov.uk

The sacks are now available to purchase from Tintagel Parish Council at a cost of £3.50 each.

If you are interested in purchasing a sack, or know a neighbour who has a problem with storage of refuse, please contact the Parish Clerk.
