NEWS FROM TINTAGEL PARISH COUNCIL

Tintagel Parish Council held their Annual General Meeting on the 7th May at Tintagel Social Hall.

Cllr. Mary Dyer was duly elected as Chairman and Clare Lewis as Vice-Chairman.

A MESSAGE FROM CLLR. MARY DYER

At the last council meeting, I was elected as Chairman of the Parish Council. The last woman to hold this office was Christine Saville and she was in the chair when our excellent parish clerk took office. Anyone who was involved with the council then would not believe the difference in the work load of the council then and the council now, which does not include the additional work of the visitor centre.

Roger Wickett, our previous Chairman, is a hard act to follow, but with the help of my fellow councillors, I promise to work hard for the parish.

I came here to live on the 1st May 1959. I had been working in London when my parents bought the cottages where we live and a small gift shop. The idea being that I would run the shop until they retired and then I would return to London. Fate then took a hand and I met my husband Pete in 1960 and we were married in 1961. We had two sons who attended Tintagel Primary School and then Sir James Smiths in Camelford. We had some very difficult times and the people of Tintagel were very supportive. My hope then was to try and give something back to the village and hopefully by being on the council and now the chairman in this small way I can try and achieve my aim.

The next Parish Council meeting will be held on the 4th June 2014 at Tintagel Social Hall at 7.00 p.m. Members of the public are welcome to come along and speak on any item on the Agenda during the ten minute public session held at 7.00 p.m.

DOG FOULING

The Parish Council continues to receive complaints about dog fouling in the parish. Recent complaints have been received concerning the amount of dog fouling around Glebe Cliff as well as in Trevena Square and the nature area.

YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE !

Dog owners are reminded that should they be caught not cleaning up after their Dogs Cornwall Council will issue Fixed penalty notices to offenders currently set at £80.00 or prosecute at Magistrates Court where the penalty is up to £1000.00 maximum. In view of this Dog owners are urged to be responsible and clean up after your Dogs. Persons who clean up and throw the bags into hedges are liable for littering fixed penalties as they are committing an additional offence.

The number of people able to issue a fixed penalty notice on behalf of Cornwall Council is much higher. We are also currently training staff from other departments to issue notices – many of which do not wear uniform or have a marked vehicle – as such there are significantly more people who are able to catch offenders and therefore the chance of being caught much greater.

Should any member of the public see someone failing to clean up after their dog has fouled a public area, and know who the owner of the dog is or take vehicle details - please let us know on 0300 1234 212.

REMEMBER IF IT'S YOUR DOG IT'S YOUR BUSINESS

HOUSEHOLDERS, TENANTS, HOLIDAY HOME OWNERS, VISITORS

PLEASE DO NOT LEAVE YOUR RUBBISH OUT OVERNIGHT IN BLACK BAGS – IT CAUSES A TERRIBLE MESS WHEN ATTACKED BY BIRDS, VERMIN ETC. PLEASE ENSURE THAT YOUR RUBBISH IS PLACED OUT FOR COLLECTION IN A SUITABLE CONTAINER.

WE ARE ALREADY EXPERIENCING INCREASING AMOUNTS OF LITTER ON THE ROADS AND VERGES IN OUR PARISH – THIS WEEKLY MESS OUTSIDE MANY HOUSES AROUND THE PARISH ONLY ADDS TO THE PROBLEM.

CLLR. FLOWER SERVES 50 YEARS AS A PARISH COUNCILLOR

At the Annual General Meeting of Tintagel Parish Council held on the 7th May, note was made that Cllr. Robert Flower had served 50 years as a parish councillor and in the past, many years as a District Councillor with the former North Cornwall District Council.

Cllrs. Roger Wickett (Parish Council) and Glenton Brown (Cornwall Council) thanked Cllr. Flower his many years of dedicated service to the area and he was presented with a framed Certificate.

TINTAGEL NEIGHBOURHOOD DEVELOPMENT PLAN

What is Neighbourhood Planning?

Overview

A Neighbourhood Plan is produced by the parish/town council and sets out local planning policies and allocates land for development. Once a Neighbourhood Plan is approved via a referendum it then has to be used to assess planning applications. It is therefore a very powerful way of providing significant local influence over the planning process. It is however primarily a development plan which means that its purpose is to support development not prevent it. Allied to Neighbourhood Plans are Neighbourhood Development Orders which gives local councils the power to grant planning permission for development without the need for a planning application.

The National Context

Neighbourhood Planning activity is extensive in Cornwall. The approach adopted in Cornwall is widely regarded as being best practice and we have been contacted by the Planning Advisory Service who are interested in using our approach as a case study nationally to assist other authorities. National support is available via Planning Aid and Locality which is funded by government
<http://mycommunityrights.org.uk/neighbourhood-planning/>

WHERE IN THE PROCESS IS TINTAGEL?

A number of meetings have been held and a small steering group has now been formed. More members are still required and a lot of volunteer help will still be needed to take this plan forward. So if you are able to help, in however, small a way, please contact the Parish Clerk.

At a meeting held on the 19th May it was agreed that a more comprehensive questionnaire would be sent to every household in the parish to see exactly what parishioners feel should be included in the plan.

ARE YOU ABLE TO HELP FILL A FEW ENVELOPES OR DELIVER A FEW ENVELOPES, JUST IN YOUR ROAD, STREET OR A LARGER AREA? IF SO, PLEASE CONTACT THE PARISH CLERK.

PLEASE READ THIS.... - ALL OF IT!

It may save someone's life!

HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT.....

How you would cope if your partner collapsed right in front of you....

What you would do if your child was choking on a sweet.....

HAVE YOU EVER SEEN.....

Someone fighting for their breath.....

Someone "faint" in the restaurant.....

HAVE YOU EVER FELT SO POORLY

That you just wanted someone to hold your hand.....

..... to just "be there" and take charge.

Tintagel and the surrounding areas are close knit communities. You look out for each other. If you saw somebody unwell, would you just walk on by? Of course not, you would stop and help, somehow, anyhow! This is why I write!

We need your help!

Because sadly, most people that need this help are unseen, they are in their own homes. They have called 999 for an ambulance and are waiting..... Every second feels like a minute.... every minute feels like an hour.....

Did you know....

That the nearest ambulance base is Camelford and it will take 10 minutes for them to arrive..... if they are on base. If they are on another call, you will wait maybe 20 or 30 minutes (or more) for the next resource to arrive.....

Did you know.....

That for every minute a patient is in cardiac arrest - without a defibrillator - 10 % of their chance of survival diminishes. That means, 10 minutes without CPR and a Defib - their chances of survival are nil, zero, nothing, zilch, diddly squat..... DEAD!

YOU CAN HELP!

We need you to become a Community First Responder. We need you to spread the word on basic first aid training. We need to form all the links for the "chain of survival"!

NO - NOT ME!

"I couldn't", "I don't have enough time", "I wouldn't know what to do", "I don't know the area", "I don't know any first aid".....

YES - YOU!

You can! We desperately need volunteers. We will train you. It will look great on your CV. You will feel great about yourself. You can use your skills if you ever see anyone in trouble, particularly your friends and family. The amount of time you give is flexible - day / night, morning / afternoon, 2 hours / 24 hours.....

What do First Responders do?

Sometimes the difference is providing reassurance prior to the arrival of an ambulance; sometimes it is saving someone's life. Responders provide life-saving care for certain medical emergencies such as chest pains, breathing difficulties and strokes. They are not asked to attend road accidents or alcohol and drug related incidents. There are people still alive today in your community thanks to community responders.

Commitment and Training

The biggest commitment is attending the initial three days of training. The amount of time you give after that varies. The group is flexible. You have the option to spend time working with a front line ambulance crew, seeing when, why and what...

I am interested. What now?

- Contact your local Community Responder Group for more information or
- Call the Responder Liaison Officer, Charlotte Hicks, on 07775 812767
- Check out the ambulance website: www.swast.nhs.uk or www.communityfirstresponders.org.uk
- Apply online through www.jobs.nhs.uk - Cornwall advert will be live from the 21st April 2014

TINTAGEL CHURCHES TOGETHER

On April 26th a quiz evening organised by Tintagel Churches Together was well attended and much enjoyed. The questions, set by Christine Irons, were both taxing, challenging and appreciated by all.

John Stratton was an excellent Question Master, always firmly (but fairly) in control!

After a very close contest, the winning team (by just one point) comprised Sue and Bryan Ede with Stuart and Jenny Patterson. Congratulations to them!

Everyone enjoyed a traditional Cornish Supper and are already looking forward to the next Quiz in the Autumn.

At the beginning of April, members of Tintagel chapel, together with friends from neighbouring chapels, visited Wesley cottage at Trewint [where John Wesley "preached and rested"]. Because of the large number, we divided into two groups. John Hogarth [Curator] and friends of Wesley Cottage spoke of the history of the place. It was fascinating to hear how the first Methodist Preachers, Nelson and Downes, visited Cornwall, and called at Trewint, at the home of Digory Isbell and his wife, Elizabeth, and prayed "without a book". The room where Wesley prayed and slept was full of interesting 18th century artefacts. Many of us enjoyed a peaceful time of reflection [albeit in the rain!] in the garden, and later in the tiny chapel. We were very grateful to Eva Paynter and her Grand-daughter who kindly served tea and coffee.

In the afternoon, we were shown around the beautiful Norman church at Altarnun by one of the wardens. The 15th century church of St Nonna [Cathedral of the moors] is dedicated to Nonna, the Mother of St David, the Patron Saint of Wales. We were impressed by the wonderful screen, 79 bench ends [with magnificent carvings including a piper, a fiddler and a jester] and the communion rails. The challenge of working out the inscriptions on the rails proved to be interesting to many of us! Finally we agreed! the full inscription read "JOHN RUDDE, MINISTER OF LANCESTON, PREBENDARY OF EXON AND VICAR OF THIS PARISH anno 1684, WILLIAM PRIDEAUX & SAMSON COWL, church wardens"

The warden was proud to show us a beautifully illustrated Bible, which was extremely ancient and valuable.

Everyone agreed this visit was informative and enjoyable, and are already looking forward to the next!

Do You Remember Tony Hancock?

Tony Hancock was only 44 years old when he committed suicide in Sydney, Australia on June 24th 1968. He was found dead in his Bellevue flat, with an empty vodka bottle and a scattering of amylo-barbitone tablets.

He was one of Great Britain's comedy favourites on radio and television in the period 1950s and 1960s. Tony was a comedy performer whose talent, truthfulness and extraordinary 'alter ego' of belligerent insecurity, showed as the self-deluding Anthony Aloysius St John Hancock, in 'Hancock' Half Hour', which is often remembered as the greatest radio series of all time, He has left wonderful memories of that era of radio and television. He was the son of a semi-professional music hall artist and learnt his trade at the famous Windmill Theater. His radio career 'break' began on the programme Educating Archie from 1951 to 1953 as the famous dummy's tutor. Other radio shows he appeared in were Calling All Forces, Forces All Star Bill, and Star Bill.

'Hancock's Half Hour' is the best remembered radio and television programme he made. In the series Tony Hancock, was a seedy, argumentative, bumptious, self important buffoon and surrounded by a wonderful cast. Johannesburg born Sid James, was his landlord of 23 Railway Cuttings, East Cheam, Wagga Wagga born Bill Kerr, played the good hearted Australian, and Hattie Jacques, was his secretary. Ray Galton and Alan Simpson, wrote the marvellous scripts for radio and television. A snatch of tuba music started the show, as the star himself stutteringly intoned the title 'H-H-Hancock's Half Hour'. The music was composed by Wally Stott.

When Tony Hancock died, a marvellous era of radio died with him and there will never be the like of Tony Hancock again. Lovely memories

NEWS FROM COUNCILLOR GLENTON BROWN, CORNWALL COUNCIL

The theme of my comments to this month is really that of Unity. The reason for my emphasis on Unity is being the forthcoming EU elections and all the controversy of being in or out of Europe. Also the risks that that entails are causing divisions and rifts between nations. It's interesting to note that 2.2 millions of our citizens work in the common market countries and 2.3 millions of EU citizens work in our Country.

The trade position for us is vital as 50% or over of our exports go into the EU. Also as we now live in an enlarged community I believe it is a great opportunity for better relationships one state with the other.

Here, of course, in the UK we head on towards the Autumn with the Scottish vote on independence and separation and this rather saddens me. We cannot afford to look upon ourselves as little Englanders any more, I come back to our own problems of the recessions with its cutbacks and financial restrictions and the re shaping of our Government departments right through to the local authorities are encouraging us as town or parish councils to work closer together to share the assets we have in a more economic sense, and not to be separatist.

If I can be of any help to you please do not hesitate to contact me on 770302 or gbrown@cornwall.gov.uk.

GROW YOUR BUSINESS

ARE YOU A SMALL TO MEDIUM SIZED BUSINESS WITH A DILEMMA THAT NEEDS A SOLUTION?

WOULD YOU WELCOME ADVICE FROM A WORLD RENOWNED EXPERT?

A major UK broadcaster is making a new high-profile television series to be transmitted later this year and we are looking to contact business owners in your area.

We are interested in small to medium sized companies with up to 100 employees.

The business owner will work with a well-known entrepreneur across a number of weeks, exploring and testing out fresh strategies to suit their business.

This series would suit a company dealing with new competition, the repercussions of the recession, or a decrease in customers or revenue.

We are keen to focus on businesses in the leisure, tourism, food, retail and manufacturing sectors. Ideally, we are looking for companies that are open to explore new ways of transforming their business and making them more profitable.

This is an exciting opportunity to be featured on a prime time series and to create innovative ideas with one of the UK's most successful entrepreneurs.

Please contact lucie_rose@victorytelevision.com or on 0207 4063057 to find out more information about this exciting new project.
