NEWS FROM COUNTY COUNCILLOR GLENTON BROWN

The Cornwall Council PAC committee which looks into its various services and operations throughout the county have been studying the county library service and by a narrow majority have really voted in favour of the annihilation of the mobile library service as we now know it. 2 or 3 options have been studied and will be brought forward and there is some aspects of the new proposals that would possibly give us a better service depending on the support from the local areas where suitable accommodation can be found. The final decision on this of course goes to full council at its next meeting.

The leisure resource committee have also been studying their strategy for the future and are seeking members view. After the long drawn out campaign we have had to save our Camelford Leisure Centre we do not want to see it disappear or come under threat again. The fact however remains that although all is apparently well at this moment in time, finances are going to be so tight and if any centre lacks in its performance and public support of use then there will be pressure upon that leisure centre.

Recent review of the network system has brought forward to new emphasis, and in particular for Camelford Network to make greater effort to make it known to the greater public at large that they have the right to attend these quarterly meetings at Camelford. It is of the attention of County to contact parish and town clerks for them to emphasise and to publicise the dates of these meetings so anyone can attend and indeed asks questions.

If I can be of any other assistance please contact me on 01840 770302 or email gbrown@cornwall.gov.uk.

TINTAGEL GARDEN CLUB

Carol Richards from Camborne, gave a talk entitled "Fun with Fuchsias" for our meeting in May. Full of knowledge and love of the subject, a light hearted delivery that had us all smiling and chuckling!

The fuchsia is such a versatile plant that, having selected the right variety, it can be grown as a bush, trailer, pyramid or standard and many other forms; frames stakes, and tying in are part of the process. Basically allow the main stem to reach the required height before pinching out the growing tip which promotes the growth of side shoots-- these can be stopped, trimmed or tied in as required: the standard requires side shoots to be removed at the beginning, but not the leaves, only allowing several to develop to form the head by removing the growing tip of the main stem at a chosen height. Strips of material cut from tights make ideal ties!

It is even possible to create bonsai - choose a young plant with small leaves and flowers, and with careful pruning and constant trimming and tying a bonsai can be achieved.

Propagation - from the tips of none flowering shoots take 3in cuttings, planting in basic compost and keep in a cold frame, propagator or cool window sill; rooting will take about 3 weeks.

Finally Carol showed us her latest interest - the awesome carnivorous plants, but she does admit to rescuing trapped bees!

Carol also brought a wide selection of plants for sale, and she was much in demand for questions over cups of coffee.

Garden visit.

In June members were fortunate in having access to a privately owned Rose Garden The roses were at their absolute best, a most enjoyable evening in spite of the damp conditions.

Our Annual plant sale on the last Saturday in May was again financially successful. The wide variety of high quality plants were eagerly sort after and our ladies cream teas are always popular. The committee really appreciate the public support the club receives on these occasions.

Our next meeting in Tintagel Social Hall 19th September at 7.30pm.

CORNWALL AIR AMBULANCE NEWS

Freemasons Fund 250 hours of Fuel for Air Ambulance

FREEMASONS from Cornish lodges have hit a major milestone in their fundraising for Cornwall Air Ambulance, having raised enough to fund over 250 hours of fuel for the lifesaving charity.

The latest donation - this year totalling £4,000 - means The Freemasons of Cornwall have now raised over £50,000 for the Cornish rescue charity since 2007.

The money was raised through The Freemason's Grand Charity, which supports air ambulance services across the UK and has donated more than £1.5 million to 22 rescue services since 2007.

Representatives from The Freemasons of Cornwall visited the charity's Newquay airbase for a tour to meet the aircrew and see the helicopter.

Provincial Grand Master Peter George said: "The Freemasons of Cornwall are proud and delighted to once again support the Cornwall Air Ambulance Trust.

"This is the longest established air ambulance service in the country and plays a vital role within our rural and often difficult to reach communities.

"Helping to support local charities and good causes is very important for the Freemasons of Cornwall, which these donations go to prove.

“We look forward to continuing our support for Cornwall Air Ambulance in the future.”

Air ambulances are the busiest voluntary emergency services in the UK.

Cornwall Air Ambulance flies around 800 rescue missions every year and receives no government funding, so relies on public donations to stay in the air.

Fundraising manager Susie Smith said: “The Freemasons of Cornwall are truly dedicated supporters of Cornwall Air Ambulance, and we want to thank them for another incredibly generous donation.

“Ongoing support such as this really does make a great difference to the local community in Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly.”

Generally the fishing has been much as expected with a good run of bream, bass and wrasse from the shore. Club boat trips out of Newquay have produced a good stamp of pollack to gilling and the normal conger, ling and huss bottom fishing on the wrecks. The smoothound and black bream have also started making an appearance and congratulations go to Richard Coad who has captured a new club boat record smoothound of 7.982kg.

Richard with his new club boat record smoothound that was returned alive.

Nigel Rundle won the fish of the month award during April with a three bearded rockling. May's fish of the month winner was Ian Young with an excellent boat caught bullhuss of 6.286kg. And congratulations go to Derek Nute who won the fish of the month award for June with a new club shore record gilthead bream of 2.215kg

Derek with his new club shore record gilthead bream

The recent weekend club match fished in July was won by Garry Boyde with a wrasse, second place went to Nigel Rundle with a three bearded rockling and third place went to Aaron Washer with a three bearded rockling. Club congratulations also go to local bass angler Terry Brown who recently landed a shore bass over 9lb.

Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority (IFCA) recently held a public meeting at County Hall, Truro to discuss a Recreation Sea Angling (RSA) strategy for Cornwall and three committee club members attended the event on behalf of the club to show their support. Many subjects were discussed including conservation and the economic importance of RSA that is estimated to be worth more than £830 million in the UK. More details can be found at their website at

<http://www.cornwall-ifca.gov.uk/#>

Forthcoming club events include a boat trip from Newquay on Wednesday 23rd July, a collaboration competition on Sunday 10th August with the last weigh in at 9.30pm at the Wootons. There is also a month long wrasse competition during August and a Pollack/Ray monthly competition during September.

This year's annual open competition will be held on 13th/14th September with a £200 cash prize for the winner and prizes of rods and reels to eighth place. The event is open to non club members and you can sign on at the Wootons Hotel.

The next general meeting will be held on Tuesday 5th September at the Wootons Hotel at 7.30pm.

Good luck and be safe

Do You Remember Phil Silvers?

It was on September 20th 1955 that the very first episode of 'The Phil Silvers Show', was broadcast on CBC Television in America . Originally the title of the show was 'You'll Never Get Rich' but soon it was renamed the 'Phil Silvers Show'. It is now 59 years since that day when Phil Silvers burst on to our television screens in America and Great Britain , to become Sergeant Bilko.

The First programme was a Pilot Show called 'Audition Show'. There were 142 episodes in four series before the programmes demise. After the Show finished on June 17th 1959, (my birthday!) it has become a cult series like Dads Army is today.

The series was shown weekly on BBC Television during its original run from 1955, and was a staple of BBC One's post-11pm late-night schedule throughout the 60s, 70s, and 80s, appearing up to several times per week immediately prior to the channel's signoff. This was before BBC1 became a 24-hour broadcaster in November 1997. In 1987, the series moved to BBC Two, where it often held a late-night slot, as well as runs during the daytime programs and even occasionally in an early evening slot. The program finally disappeared from British television screens in October 2004 after nearly 50 years.

The popularity of the program was underlined when the UK publication Radio Times Guide to Comedy ranked The Phil Silvers Show as its top TV Sitcom. I have the complete series of The Phil Silvers Show and rate it as my favourite television series of all time. The writing was superb and the cast seemed made for the programme.

Phil Silvers was the great but slightly flawed gambler, Sergeant Bilko !. His right-hand men were Cpl. Rocco Barbella (Harvey Lembeck) and Cpl. Steve Henshaw (Allan Melvin), and his long-suffering superior was Col. John T. Hall (Paul Ford). The large supporting cast included Herbie Faye (a former burlesque crony of Silvers') as Pvt. Sam Fender, Maurice Gosfield as the slovenly Pvt. Duane Doberman, Joe E. Ross as the camp cook Sgt. Rupert Ritzik, Beatrice Pons as loud-mouthed Mrs. Ritzik, Billy Sands as Pvt. Dino Paparelli, Jimmy Little as Sgt. Francis Grover, and Mickey Freeman as diminutive Pvt. Fielding Zimmerman. Some episodes gave Bilko a romantic interest with Elisabeth Fraser as Sgt. Joan Hogan.

In the series finale, "Weekend Colonel", Bilko discovers a short-order cook who is the exact double of Colonel Hall. Bilko hires the cook to impersonate the colonel, so he can cheat the other officers in a bogus charity effort. The real Colonel Hall learns of the scam, and Bilko, Henshaw, and Barbella end up being locked away in the guardhouse. As Colonel Hall looks at his prisoners on a newly installed closed-circuit TV system, he quips: "It's a wonderful show, and as long as I'm the sponsor, it will never be cancelled." The camera cuts to Bilko and his henchmen finally behind bars. Bilko waves to the camera and says, "Th-th-that's all, folks!" So ended the series.

If you have never watched it, in my opinion, you have missed the best Sit Com ever on television!.

EASTER GARDEN FESTIVAL AT TINTAGEL

The Rev. Michael Parsons thought it would be a good idea to hold an Easter Garden Festival in St. Materiana Church, Tintagel, over the Easter holidays, involving Tintagel Primary School and Tintangels pre-school as well as local organisations. And thanks to all concerned it turned out to be a great success.

There were 30 garden displays in the church which attracted 400-500 visitors who were asked to be the judges of the gardens. The winners were brother and sister Aimee and Thomas King (two and four years old respectively).

Thanks to everyone who donated cakes and their time to take turns in the church. Refreshments were free but donations for them amounted to £250. £125 was given to Children's Hospice South West and £125 to church funds.

Thanks to you all once again.

TINTAGEL PRIMARY SCHOOL

What a fantastic summer term we have had. Our children have performed brilliantly in the many sporting activities which have taken place: Deli Farm Run, County Primary Athletics Competition, Year 1 Multi Sports and the Inter Primary Swimming Gala, which we came 1st! Well done to all who took part we are very proud of you. Our sporting activities were rounded off with our well attended sports day.

There have also been many class educational visits which have taken place from; Newquay Zoo, Blue Reef Aquarium and our annual surfing lessons at Polzeath. Not forgetting the action packed residential to Porthpean Outdoor Education Centre and Nine Ashes, Pencarrow. Thank you to all the staff who so freely gave up their time and to parents and carers who assisted us at these events.

We have also been busy with the arts this term. This week Class 4 will be performing their production of "The Wizard of Oz", this will be followed by our annual music festival this Friday afternoon concluding with Class 2's performance of Moby Duck at the North Cornwall Drama Festival at Clease Hall, Camelford next Monday evening.

Last Friday the present school community celebrated the school's centenary with a relaxed afternoon including; barbeque, display of historical photographs and memorabilia, performances from the pupils and a wonderful nostalgic trip down memory lane from our Chair of Governors, Mr David Cook. Many thanks to all members of the school community, past and present pupils, staff, families and friends, who were able to join us for this momentous event. All pupils, staff and governors were presented with a commemorative mug designed by two of our pupils. If anyone would like to purchase a mug we have a few left in school which are on sale at £4 each.

In amongst all these exciting events, we have still been working hard! Our Year 6 leavers achieved extremely pleasing results in their end of KS2 SATs and are all moving onto Sir Jims' equipped with a high level of skills to take their learning even further forward. We shall miss every one of them and wish them all the best!

We are also saying farewell to Mrs Jan Petch our Class 1 Teacher and Mrs Vickie Tremain our Class 1 Teaching Assistant. All the best for the future.

HARTLEY HOME CARE SCHOOLS CUP

Seven local schools from the Moor and Coastal Partnership Trust competed in the first ever inter schools Kwik Cricket Competition.

The event, kindly sponsored by Hartley Home Care, was held at Tintagel Cricket Club on Thursday 10th July.

Represented were Community Primary Schools from Otterham, Tintagel, St Teath, St Breward and Camelford.

As a result of Tintagel C.C's recent investment in Youth Cricket and the game being taken into Schools via the ECB's "Chance 2 Shine" initiative meant that there were over 70 children, many of them girls, with the ability to compete to enhance their sporting development.

The Competition was hard fought and played in the spirit of cricket with admirable sportsmanship.

Otterham 'A' and St Teath made it through to a hard contested final with both teams scoring over 200 runs.

St Teath came out the eventual winners, both teams received medals for their efforts but St Teath will have the converted trophy for the next 12 months.

Sponsor Phil Hartley said. "The hard work put into Tintagel Cricket Club by our Youth Development Team in bringing through players into our 1st and 2ndXI, will be the life blood of the clubs future.

It is Important to invest in youth in our local community to keep Cricket healthy in our surrounding villages and is something I am passionate about and happy to support".
