TINTAGEL PARISH COUNCIL

PUBLIC CONVENIENCES AT TINTAGEL VISITOR CENTRE

The volunteers who had cleaned the toilets at the Visitor Centre have decided that they are no longer able to do so.

Would you be interested in helping your Parish by volunteering to clean the public conveniences at the Visitor Centre on a daily basis?

The Visitor Centre is a thriving centre for visitors to the Parish and the public conveniences form a vital facility for everyone, visitors and locals alike.

If you are able to help, please contact the Parish Clerk either by email tintagelpc@btinternet.com or by calling 01840 770022, or the Chairman, Mary Dyer on 01840 770472.

A note from the Chairman, Cllr. Mary Dyer

It was with great sadness that the Parish Council received our Clerk, Susan's letter of resignation.

I was at her first meeting and thought at the time how lucky we were to have someone who had lived in the village all her life and knew the village people, and had local knowledge, as our Clerk.

On leaving school she worked for North Cornwall District Council for 17 years, so bringing some of this experience to her job as Clerk. For ten years, Sue has worked diligently and efficiently for the good of the parish both as Clerk and at the Visitor Centre over the last three years, and possibly many people will not be aware of the fact, that a good many of these hours were not part of her remuneration, they were as a volunteer.

During her time in office many things have changed for Parish and Town Councils and their work load has increased. Susan has helped the Council and guided us through what often seemed to be a minefield of paperwork from the various departments of Cornwall Council and other organisations.

As a very new and inexperienced Chairman of the Parish Council I was looking forward to having her help and expertise and I will miss that, as will most of my fellow councillors.

We all owe her a great debt of gratitude and we all hope that she will enjoy her "retirement".

Mary Dyer, Chairman,

Tintagel Parish Council

PRINCE OF WALES ENGINE HOUSE, TINTAGEL

Many of you will be aware that the Duchy of Cornwall had intended to auction the above property on the 18th September. The Parish Council wrote to the Duchy and to the Private Secretary to the Prince of Wales to express their concern that this site was going to be auctioned with very little prior warning to local people or to the Parish Council. It is understood that some individuals also wrote to the Duchy and the Prince of Wales to express their concern.

The Engine House was refurbished in the 1970s by public donations of cash, materials, storage for materials and time, and funding for manpower by the then Manpower Services Commission.

The Duchy of Cornwall withdrew the property from the auction to be held on the 18th September and it is understood that it may be considered for inclusion in a future auction list later in the year.

Tintagel Parish Council's next meeting is on Wednesday 1st October. The start time for the meeting will be brought forward to 6.30 p.m. to enable the public session for discussion of the future of the Engine House to be extended. The Parish Council will proceed with their meeting no later than 7.30 p.m.

If you would like to express your views regarding the future of the Engine House site, please come along to the Parish Council meeting to be held on Wednesday 1st October at 6.30 p.m. at Tintagel Social Hall.

NEWS FROM CORNWALL COUNCILLOR, GLENTON BROWN

I expect everyone has now heard of the financial cutbacks Cornwall has to make over the next 3-4 years of £196 million. I now have a 113 page document outlining the proposed plans. This is now open to public consultation and I believe the next Camelford Network Meeting is at the St James Smith School, Dark Lane, Camelford on Monday 27th October at 7pm, so not only will it deal with business in our immediate network area and its AGM but also have time to discuss the proposed budget cuts and hopefully Councillor Alex Folkes cabinet member responsible will be in attendance to answer your questions. I am hoping there will be another opportunity to advance a need for a dentist in the Camelford area, along with Councillor Rotchell and Lugg hope to attend a meeting in early October. You may be familiar with the many potholes that have been around and thankfully now have been greatly reduced, however two nasty ones still remain at the top of Bowithick Hill and the top of Trewinnick Hill and I am assured these will soon be attended to.

The waste management team are currently renewing their lists and registration for anyone needing refuse, recycling or garden waste collected from their houses to register as soon as possible and the number of the people on this service has almost doubled in the last four years. The cost of the service is £30.49 per annum and if you have any difficulty in registering for this assistance and service then please telephone 0311 1234 141 and hopefully you will receive help. If I can be of any help on any subject please do not hesitate to contact me on gbrown@cornwall.gov.uk or 01840 770302.

I would like to conclude this article in taking time in congratulating the Parish Council in its excellent performance in recent years. When I think of the variety of work that is done by the Parish Councils in my electoral division it is very noteworthy that the Tintagel Parish Council really stands out for its excellent performance, it meets regularly, it's up to date on issues, it has a parish plan, it is sensitive to future developments in the parish, it is a transparent and open council, and I consider it the most progressive council in the North of the County as I think of its enthusiasm to take over the visitor centre which was making a loss of some £40,000 a year and to now secure its future on a safer financial footing and has enhanced the assets considerably of the Tintagel Parish. Finally I must also offer a big thank you to the work the clerk Sue Moth has put in over these last 10 years, she has often gone the second mile in dealing with the demands on time with many of the changes and of course the visitor centre takeover in recent times. She has carried out her duties in a very professional manor and her responses to action needed from the Parish Council has always been immediate. Thank you to Sue.

My thanks also goes to the outgoing Parish Council Chairman Mr Roger Wickett for his excellent contribution, and my warmest greetings to Mary Dyer as she takes on the role.

FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE DUCHY OF CORNWALL'S PROPOSED SALE OF THE PRINCE OF WALES ENGINE HOUSE AND LAND, TREWARMETT FROM CLLR. GLENTON BROWN, CORNWALL COUNCIL

I appreciate being given extra space in the Parish Newsletter to comment on the Prince of Wales Engine House off the Sanding Road, Tintagel. I have had several phone calls and emails regarding its pending sales and I have duly contacted the Auctioneers suggesting the auction be postponed and your letter sent on to Prince Charles personal offices. I would now like to offer two further addresses of whom I have already written to, I would suggest the more people that write in the better and that is to express your concerns by writing to: The Princes Regeneration Trust, 14 Buckingham Palace Road, London, SW1W 0QP and also I have been in touch with the Cornwall Heritage Trust and am awaiting their reply and again I would welcome your input in contacting them seeking support for this venture and their address is The Cornwall Heritage Trust Administrative Office, 5 Kurns House, Threemilestone Industrial Estate, Threemilestone, Truro TR4 9LD. As events unfold it may be necessary for us to call a meeting to ascertain what support there is for any action if indeed any action is possible.

Tintagel Sea Angling Club Newsletter – September 2014

<http://www.facebook.com/TintagelSeaAnglingClub>

tintagelsac@tiscali.co.uk

The summer season draws to an end and we can reflect on some very good fishing with a good run of bream, bass, mullet, pollack and wrasse from the shore. Club boat trips out of Newquay have produced a good stamp of pollack to gilling and the normal conger, ling and huss bottom fishing on the wrecks. With the water temperature maintaining a very warm 17°C we should continue to see boat caught black bream and trigger fish and perhaps more unusual visitors such as the Atlantic bonito recorded recently.

Tintagel SAC held their annual open shore competition on the weekend of 13th / 14th September. The competition was very well supported and the presentation took place at the Wootons Hotel, Tintagel. An exceptional number of specimen fish were recorded with the best specimen a scad of 153% recorded by Tintagel SAC member Richard Wright, second was a wrasse of 122%, third a LSD of 118% and even eighth place was a fish of 110%.

A full list of open winners is as follows:

1st prize £200 sponsored by Camel Fish was won by Richard Wright

2nd prize a rod sponsored by The Wootons Hotel was won by Chris Boland

3rd prize a rod sponsored by DW Nute was won by Andy Bicknell

4th prize a rod was won by Ross Hawkins

5th prize of a reel was won by J Constance

6th prize of a reel won by Sid Bennett

7th prize won by Paul Hawkins

8th prize won by Garry Boyde

Best club member Richard Wright also won a £50 tackle voucher

The club would also like to thank everyone behind the scenes for there help and support with particularly thanks to the main sponsors Camel Fish, The Wootons Hotel and DW Nute.

Derek Nute won the fish of the month award during July with a Ballan Wrasse of 2131g, (85%). Nigel Rundle set a new club boat record during September with a Blonde Ray of 9415g

The latest scientific advice on bass stocks is very worrying but has served to put the vulnerability of bass stocks and our sport into the spotlight. A succession of poor spawning years and increased fishing pressure has led to a steep decline in the bass spawning stock. The seriousness of the situation has at last been recognised by EU Fisheries and plans are being made to reduce fishing effort, protect the fish during spawning and allow more juvenile fish to reach spawning size. But Europe is dragging its heels and arguing over quotas while the fishing pressure continues unabated. In the UK, DEFRA is currently deferring decisions until the EU has reached agreement, whilst locally the Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authorities (IFCAs) are giving increased consideration to their own role on bass management inside the 6 mile limit. Inevitably, something is going to happen over the coming months.

Bass Anglers Sportfishing Society (BASS) are holding a workshop on Sunday 19th October to discuss these matters, if you would like to read more, details can be found at <http://www.ukbass.com/>

Forthcoming club events include a boat trip from Newquay on Wednesday 24th September. A club organised 4-day fishing trip to Guernsey on 3rd October. A month long bass / ray competition during October and a collaboration flounder competition on Sunday November 9th

This year's Annual Bass Open Shore competition will be held on the weekend of 11th / 12th October with a £250 first prize and various other prizes including rods and reels to eighth place, the event is open to non club members and you can sign on at the Wootons Hotel, see poster for details.

The big tides in October are on the 9th with the full moon on the 8th and the new moon on the 23rd. In November the big tides are on the 7th the full moon is on the 6th and the new moon is on the 22nd when sunrise will be at 7.57am and sunset at 18.06pm.

The next general meeting will be held on Tuesday 7th September at the Wootons Hotel at 7.30pm.

Good luck and be safe

Nigel.

NATIONAL COASTGUARD RECEIVES CHEQUE FROM CAMELFORD ROTARY CLUB

Recently, John Davis on behalf of the National Coastguard at Boscastle attended the Coach House, Lanteglos to receive a cheque from the President of the Rotary Club of Camelford.

There are 50 Coastguard Stations around our coast normally reporting to Falmouth who decide what to send to an emergency. They operate daylight hours with volunteer watch keeping from 08.00 until 16.00 in 2 shifts.

Boscastle opened in 2003 using the National Trust building which needed renovating. They have 32 volunteers and try to have 2 on duty together on a shift. £ months ago, they received permission from English Nature to install CCTV to cover a blind spot at the entrance of the harbour.

I would also take this opportunity to thank all the helpers.

Dan Rogerson MP writes ...

I have been contacted by several people who are concerned about the reliability of bus services from Tintagel to Bude, Camelford and Wadebridge, as well as about recent changes and cuts to bus services in our area. I been raising local people's concerns about local bus services with Western Greyhound and Cornwall Council.

I determined to look at all the options to invest in and improve the rural bus network. The Coalition Government's recent £48.9 million 'Growth Deal' for Cornwall will see bus services across Cornwall reviewed and improved. It is right that public transport improvements are a part of our growth strategy and I want to see our area get its fair share of the improvements to the bus network.

I am also continuing my campaign to cut the tax we have to pay on petrol and diesel in North Cornwall. In areas like ours where using a car is a necessity not a luxury, I think it is right that we pay less fuel duty. The Coalition Government have extended the 5 pence-per-litre reduction in tax on petrol and diesel to some rural areas, and I am continuing to keep up the pressure for the fuel discount to be brought to North Cornwall.

I am on the hunt for areas that are in need of a new post box. Royal Mail are going to install 2,000 new post boxes across the country, particularly in rural areas and on new housing developments that don't have decent access to a post box. If you think your area is in need of a post box please let me know so that when I meet with Royal Mail in the next few weeks, I can press for any new post boxes to be installed as soon as possible.

I am also working with local people to try and secure the future of the Prince of Wales Engine House at Trewarmett. The Engine House was restored by local people and we are understandably keen to preserve it for the future. We have managed to get the Duchy of Cornwall to halt the sale of the land, and are looking at all possible options to try and safeguard it for the future.

Every summer and into early Autumn I spend the time visiting as many towns, villages and parishes in the North Cornwall constituency to knock on doors. My summer door knocking tour aims to give as many local people as possible a chance to speak to me in person about any local or national issues, problems or concerns. It's a tradition that was started by my predecessors as MP, John Pardoe and Paul Tyler, and it's a vital part of my work to keep in touch with local people all year round – not just at election time – and so that I can campaign on the issues that matter when I speak up for us in Westminster.

This is my 10th summer tour, and it has good to be able to speak to so many familiar faces in Tintagel and the surround communities, and many new faces too. If I haven't managed to catch you in or if there's anything I can help with then you can always contact me by e-mail, letter, telephone or arrange a time for us to meet using the details below.

Best wishes, Dan

TINTAGEL METHODIST CHAPEL

What is happening at the Chapel?

You may have noticed that the Methodist Church is swathed in scaffolding at the moment. Hopefully, by the time you read this the new roof will be well on the way to completion. The chapel is undergoing refurbishment and the replacement of the old slates with a new roof. The plan is to use any good slates from the main roof to redo the roof on the Sunday School rooms which have been used for worship during the building works.

Inside the main building, windows are being repaired, made watertight and secondary double glazing installed. A new lighting and audio system is being installed with some alteration to the floor levels in front of the pulpit.

Scaffolding has also been erected inside the chapel as complete redecoration takes place. A generous legacy from a long term church member has enabled this work to be carried out. The refurbishment should be finished by mid-November and everyone will then be very welcome to come inside and see for themselves.

2014 Tintagel Carnival, Goodbye's and the future.

2014 Tintagel Carnival

Well Tintagel Carnival week is over for another year and wasn't it brilliant!! I think you will all agree it was one of the best weeks we've ever had and even the big yellow thing in the sky shone down on us (well most of the time!).

Carnival week kicked off early this year on Friday with a Music Night at Tintagel Cricket Club with music from Doug & Keiron and Dusk At Dawns. Saturday with one of the best Wheelbarrow Race evening we've ever had with over a dozen entries in the adult's race. Monday we had Pasties & Cream Teas at the WI Hall (the good weather certainly brought the visitors), Tuesday evening was the fun and fiendishly difficult Walking Treasure Hunt and Thursday the Children's Disco at the Social Hall. We took a break on Friday to catch our breath and on Saturday the big yellow shiny thing shone down on us as Tintagel Carnival Parade wound its way through a packed village.

Following Carnival week we had an additional Pasties & Cream Teas day at the WI Hall and a very successful Race Night run in conjunction with Tintagel Cricket Club. Unfortunately, due to the unavailability of Tintagel Methodist Chapel we have had to postpone till the New Year the Johnny Cowling Gospel Evening planned for October.

Goodbye's.

A very special thank-you this year goes from Tintagel Carnival to Kathy Rowse, Vickie Tremain, Dawn Gabriel, Jane Osoway and Elaine Flew who are retiring from the committee after many many years of dedicated service to Tintagel Carnival and the whole community.

Our goodbye's now bring me to.....

The Future.

Did you laugh at the Wheelbarrow Race??

Scratch your head at the Treasure Hunt questions??

Bop n Boogie at the Music Night??

Children dance the evening away at the Family Disco??

Did your business benefit from all the additional people in the village??

And finally, enjoy one of the biggest Carnival's in Cornwall??

If so, then.....

YOUR CARNIVAL NEEDS YOU!!

With the retirement's from the Committee this year it's time for Tintagel to stand up and answer the above call. If you, the residents and businesses of Tintagel, want a Carnival in 2015 and the future with all the benefits this brings then YOUR CARNIVAL NEEDS YOU!! We need a large number of new committee members and specifically people to fill the following important positions.

Committee Secretary

Treasurer

(Full training and support will be provided to anyone taking on these important positions.)

The very blunt message is.....No new committee members, no Carnival in 2015!! Come on Tintagel...come forward and help continue one of the best events in this village and North Cornwall.

The Tintagel Carnival AGM will be held on Wednesday 22nd October, 7:30pm at the Methodist School Room. Please come along and support YOUR Carnival.

CORNWALL AIR AMBULANCE - NEWS RELEASE

Husband Urges Cornwall: “Help Fund a Flight for Cornwall Air Ambulance to help more like my Wife”

A man whose wife was rescued by Cornwall Air Ambulance is urging people across Cornwall to help the charity ‘Fund a Flight’ this September.

Steve Michell’s wife, Lisa, was airlifted by the charity-funded emergency helicopter in 2013 after suffering serious burns in a barbeque explosion.

Steve and Lisa are taking part in the charity’s annual Fund a Flight Week from 22nd to 28th September 2014 by holding a ‘Come Dine With Me’ night with friends and family.

Communities, schools and businesses are being invited to join them and do something fun to keep Cornwall Air Ambulance flying.

The helicopter and crew have been kept busy over the summer, flying over 225 emergency rescue missions since the beginning of June.

Steve said: “We do all we can to give something back to the charity that saved Lisa’s life.

“I was also badly burnt in the accident but as I was being taken to hospital I could hear the Cornwall Air Ambulance preparing to land and I knew that Lisa would get to the specialist burns unit in Swansea as quickly as humanly possible.

“I am sure the care received prior to arriving at Swansea and post-arrival ensured she survived. The air ambulance made sure our two young children still have their Mum.

“That’s why we’re doing our bit for Fund a Flight Week, but we would urge everybody to get involved – whether you’ve had to use the air ambulance or not. You never know when it you or a member of your family who will need it.”

Anybody can get involved in Fund a Flight Week, whether it’s a sponsored leg wax, a baked bean bath or a coffee morning.

Susie Smith, fundraising manager at Cornwall Air Ambulance Trust, said: “We love this week because it really does show the people, businesses and communities of Cornwall at their best, helping a vital local charity and having fun at the same time!

“We hear about all kinds of weird and wonderful fundraising events taking place during this week every year. This year we already have companies pledging to take part in ‘Onesie Wednesday’, and ‘Fryup Friday’, whilst others are seeing how much they can raise from swear jars and putting the boss in stocks.

“Pubs are holding quiz nights, schools are holding non-uniform days, and local church groups are holding coffee mornings. It really is about everybody doing their bit – no matter how small – to make a difference.

“We’d love as many community groups, schools, companies and even just groups of friends to get involved and put the fun into fundraising! We can give you loads of fundraising materials, including posters, buckets and banners – just get in touch.”

To pledge your support for Fund a Flight Week and find out more, call 01637 889926 or go to www.cornwallairambulancetrust.org/fundaflight

CONSERVING TINTAGEL CASTLE

English Heritage is currently applying for planning permission to transform the way that visitors experience this ancient and beautiful place. During the winter of 2014, we hope to carry out a number of new works at Tintagel Castle. When the site re-opens in Summer 2015, you will see:

- New visitor facilities within the existing building, including a shop, membership room and completely new and expanded interpretation
- A reconfiguration of the area around the building, including a wider external pavement, a canopy over part of the frontage, a more attractive area at the entrance to the site, a bridge making the café fully accessible and a second bridge providing direct access between the visitor building and the café
- A new kiosk at the entrance to the mainland courtyard
- A range of new interpretation materials across all parts of the site, telling the story of the Dark Age rulers of Cornwall, and how medieval legends of King Arthur inspired noblemen to build a castle here.

We hope to keep to a minimum any disruption to your visits, but we are sure that these new features will ensure that Tintagel Castle is a place worth returning to. More information and images which give an impression of the improvements will be available soon but if you have any questions, please contact Matt Ward at the castle on 01840 770328.

The Ovaltineys Part Two

In my series of 'Do You Remember' I wrote about the Ovaltineys in December 2013.

In February my doorbell rang and Helen Pincus, a neighbour in Castle Heights, was at the door. Helen had a couple of pages of A4 with her and said how she had found my article about the Ovaltineys so interesting. She said she had been in the actual show which was broadcast on Radio Luxembourg for 5 years. I asked if I could reproduce her article for the Parish Newsletter and she agreed as long as she had the final say. However, this was not to be as Helen passed away a couple of months ago, I can't have her final approval but hope she would agree that it should be printed.

I was actually fortunate enough to be present back in February 2006 at what was to be possibly her last performance on stage. She was not a well lady at that time but I remember she gave a rousing rendition of 'I Do Like To Be Beside The Seaside' in the Cave of Harmony show at Boscastle.

This is what Helen wrote

Dear David

A wee note, if I may?

I enjoyed the information you had to dig up about Radio Luxembourg, with many a memory duly jogged? Just the mention of the successful 'Ovaltineys' meant more than a fleeting recall as I was as a child, not, an ordinary member of the club but a performer!.

As an original 'Ovaltiney', we were directed by Clarence Wright – a well-known tenor of his day! (His father was Lawrence Wright, a very successful music publisher of "Tin Pan Alley!

I cannot recall the actual routine of rehearsals but we worked (well paid!), towards a recording session every three weeks at the Star Sound studios before a well behaved audience of Ovaltineys members, many of whom queued up afterwards for our autographs!

Each programme had 5 minutes Song and 5 minutes Continuing Story (kind of Enid Blyton children adventure style) and ending with further singing. We were accompanied on an electronic organ by Harold Smart and their wonderful Jazz Pianist, Bill McGuffey.

I worked the season's recordings and continued from the age of 10 until I sounded too mature (?) at the age of 15 years. I am now 75, so you may work out which year!

When I went to London again, I wanted to search out the 'Star Sound Studios' off Baker Street in the Mews, but long gone I fear. What is seared in my brain is both the opening and closing songs (more than a jingle) plus the way we advertised "Ovaltine Biscuits" - they were Scrumptious!"

A later add on by Helen said "I had intended to write this out neatly and to make corrections as I go...but, as with every Christmas, I ran out of time.

The attached are memories, in no particular order and were noted down directly from my brain!

Sorry about my writing (her writing was absolutely fine!), and sorry if I have recalled anyone incorrectly or names not quite correct (they were all correct!)

Valerie Singleton, was the only person from those childhood performers whom I kept in touch with until about 7 years ago.

Gosh!. Five years of singing those programmes- but I suppose it improved my sight reading!

Tintagel Surf Life Saving Club 1964 - 2014, Saving Lives for 50 Years

This year marks our 50th Year and we have been both reflecting upon and celebrating our history here at Trebarwith Strand.

The Club has always actively promoted safety in the water (and on the beach) and trained hundreds of young people in vital lifesaving skills and techniques over the past five decades. We are proud that the club has saved 307 lives and our members regularly assist in rescues, training events, first aid and provide advice on safety.

Our current Club has a vibrant membership, with a waiting list for the Nipper section (from 8 years) and the Junior and Senior sections are both active and well attended. Each member has the opportunity to develop their skills each year and achieve Nationally recognised Awards. Many progress to become fully trained life guards working for the RNLI patrolling our local beaches. During the summer we meet on Friday evenings (Nipper Section) and Sunday mornings and train in the sea whenever possible, we then continue the training with Winter sessions held at Camelford Leisure Centre.

In July we invited past and present members to our 50th Party, which was held in view of Gull Rock, however the local mist was with us all day and evening on our chosen date!

Our team of volunteers helped make this a truly memorable event, and during the evening a presentation was made Les Freke, our Chairman who has himself served 40 years with the Club.

Tintagel and Treknow Rainbows and Brownies (formerly Treknow) have moved and now meet once a week during term time in Tintagel and not Treknow. Rainbows and Brownies are part of Girlguiding UK and are for girls aged between 5 - 7 years and 7 - 10 years respectively.

For more information on meeting place and times as well as joining enquiries please contact:

TINTAGEL GARDEN CLUB

In August we ended our summer programme with a garden safari, where club members visited some of our member's gardens, ending with refreshments and socializing at Davana Lodge. A fitting conclusion to our Mediterranean summer.

In September our first meeting at the Social hall was 'Wild About Cornwall' with David Chapman -- a talented photographer, and wild life specialist, who has written many books on the subject; he also teaches mathematics, with a spin off from that of designing quirky knitting patterns principally for two equally talented ladies, his wife and mother!

With this introduction we were launched into a tour of the Cornish coast line--well known beaches and hidden coves, with their geology and plant life that supports so many wild creatures; all of which was illustrated with photographs, the quality of which was second to none. First were a flock of skittering snipe, chasing the sea off a beach as they dug for sand eels, and then the only bird of prey that can really hover, the Kestrel with its unique aerodynamic shape. There followed a cavalcade of ravens, puffins the returning choughs, and many others including the first world war story of the unfortunate slaughter of the peregrine falcon--it was targeting the carrier pigeons which were vital in taking messages back and forth from England and France.

There were wonderful close ups of the Emperor moth, a Fritillary and silver studded blue butterfly with the "ahhh!" factor reserved for the last--a sleepy dormouse woken from its day time torpor; as it also hibernates, it has potentially a much longer life span than others of its kind--providing it can avoid being caught by its many predators.

There were books and cards on offer, so we were able to take away reminders of how fortunate we are to live in this especially beautiful part of the world.

TINTAGEL CRICKET CLUB

HARTLEY HOME CARE EVENING LEAGUE
ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 2014

TO BE HELD AT THE CLUBHOUSE,
WEDNESDAY 26TH NOVEMBER AT 7.30 P.M.

PLEASE HAVE A REPRESENTATIVE OF YOUR TEAM ATTEND TO DISCUSS
DETAILS FOR NEXT SEASON

TINTAGEL CRICKET CLUB

The cricket season is over for this year and another evening league was completed with the Wootons Country Hotel winning the league cup and Port Isaac winning the knock out shield. This year we were delighted to welcome a new team calling themselves "The Green Army" made up from players of Tintagel Football Club, led by their captain Sean Keeble. They enjoyed a good result in their first season.

However, during this year one of the oldest teams (The Poldark Inn) was forced to withdraw from the competition due to lack of players and together with the loss of the Cobweb Inn two years ago has reduced the number of teams to eight.

We are asking anyone who might be interested in forming a team to participate in the evening league to contact Allan Sargeant on 01840 770707.

We encourage all, young or old, male or female to join us and experience the joy of evening cricket league.

Please note, if you are under sixteen years old, you are eligible to play for more than one team.
