Cornwall Council fines a Tintagel resident for leaving behind dog mess!

On Monday 9th August a Tintagel resident contacted Tintagel Parish Council after witnessing an irresponsible dog walker failing to clean up after their dog fouled on a roadside verge near Tintagel Primary School. The Parish Council notified Debbie Ebsary, Street Ranger who carried out a brief investigation with Chris Instance, Enforcement Officer who issued an £80 fixed penalty notice – the amount was reduced to £50 as it was paid within 10 days.

Debbie Ebsary, Street Ranger for Cornwall Council, said: "Nobody wants to see dog mess left on our streets. It's great to see that members of the public are willing to get in touch and let us know about these types of offences. They want to keep their neighbourhood clean and we are working with them to achieve that."

Cornwall Council introduced a Dog Control Order from July this year that covers all of Cornwall to ensure all areas of Cornwall have the same levels of enforcement for dog fouling. The new order covers all areas in the open air, to which the public are entitled access (by way of payment or not) - this expands the area that was previously covered to include all roads (regardless of the speed limit) as well as more public areas.

If anyone does witness a dog walker failing to pick up after their dog has fouled and would like to report it then please ring Cornwall Council's Dog Welfare & Enforcement Team on 0300 1234 212, or speak to your local Street Ranger - Debbie Ebsary on 0300 1234 202. Action will be taken on the basis of all suitable information that is provided - we would ask that you collect details such as name/address (if known), vehicle description/registration details, description of what happened (location, date, time, what actually happened etc...) and description of the person/dog.

The Dog Welfare & Enforcement service do carry out proactive patrols, and will issue tickets to any person failing to clean up and properly dispose of dog waste (it is a separate offence to leave behind bagged dog waste). There are also many other Council Officers as well as the local PCSO's that are able to issue tickets to offenders, although it is only with members of the public taking responsibility for their neighbourhoods and reporting problems and persons responsible that we will be able to deal with the issue effectively.

Wednesday 6th October

Wednesday 3rd November

Cornwall Council have issued tickets for people who are parking with no permits, cars which are displaying a permit for a different registration number i.e. where someone has changed their car and not obtained a new permit and where the permitted length of stay is being exceeded. There is no excuse for not displaying a valid permit if you qualify for one. This matter has been the subject of articles in previous editions of the Parish Newsletter and in the July issue a Permit Application Card was reproduced for residents to update/obtain a permit as necessary. A Permit Application Card is again reproduced below so if you require a new permit, please complete and return the copy of the card below to the Clerk, along with a stamped addressed envelope, and a new permit will be issued. YOU WILL RECEIVE A FINE IF YOU DO NOT DISPLAY A VALID PERMIT, IF THE PERMIT IS NOT VISIBLE OR IF YOU STAY OVER THE PERMITTED TIME.

CLOSURE OF CAR PARK DURING WORKS

Some improvement works will be carried out to the entrance to Trevena Square and the Permit Holder's car park in the autumn. This may mean that the car park will be closed for a short period of time. Notices will be posted on the Parish Notice boards to advise of any proposed closure. Permit holders are reminded that there are still spaces for their exclusive use in the car park adjacent to the Visitor Centre.

DOG FOULING

The National Trust has provided a Dog Waste bin at Glebe Cliff. This was due to public request and it is hoped that it will alleviate the problem with dog fouling in the area. As neither Cornwall Council or the National Trust was able to empty the bin this is being carried out by a volunteer from the Parish Council.

With autumn upon us, the sea temperatures have peaked and will soon start to fall. All the usual summer species arrived this year along with a few unusual ones such as the amberjack. Shore fishing during September is probably the best time of the year around Tintagel with good size Pollack, ray and bass being recorded along with numbers of scad, mackerel garfish and wrasse. Boat fishing has already seen good numbers of triggerfish and bream and for the boats managing to get out in October the tope should be at their best.

One worrying aspect is the apparent disappearance of wrasse around the Barras Head area. It is rumoured that it has to do with discharges down the old sewerage pipe although I stress that this has not been substantiated and that the club are still trying to find the underlying cause. If anyone has any information that they think would be helpful we would be very interested in hearing from you. Phone 01840 770382 or email tintagelsac@tiscali.co.uk

Nigel Rundle won the July Fish of the month competition and species competition with a golden grey mullet of 2lb 6ozs (100%). Early September has seen some better size bass being recorded with David Gibson and Gary Boyde both catching fish over 7lbs. The club boat competition was a great success and enjoyed by all those that took part.

Forthcoming events during September are dominated by the annual open shore competition taking place on the weekend of the 25th/26th September. Prize money includes £200 first prize, £75 for second and £25 for third. There are also other prizes such as rods and reels. The competition is open to everyone including accompanied juniors with the sign on at the Wootons Hotel, Tintagel between 5 and 5.30pm on Saturday 25th. Our thanks go to all those that helped sponsor the competition especially our main sponsors Ian and Felicity at the Wootons Hotel. Several members will also be looking forward to the 4-day organised fishing trip to Guernsey taking place in October.

There is a very big tide in October on the 8th with the new moon on the 7th and the full moon on the 23rd. The next general meeting will be held on the 5th October at the Wootons Hotel at 7.30pm.

Good luck and be safe,

Nigel

TINTAGEL SURF LIFE SAVING CLUB

TLSC have enjoyed a busy summer with good attendance for our weekly training sessions at Trebarwith Strand, the Nippers (8-12yrs) are now looking forward to their end of summer Night Hike, after which we will be returning to the Camelford Leisure Centre for winter training.

Winning first Prize in the Tintagel Carnival held in August, our huge swimmer was quite a challenge to design and build, and an even greater challenge to control as the members travelled the Carnival route! It's always an enjoyable evening for members of all ages and fantastic to be part of the event.

Not afraid of a challenge, some of our members took part in this year's Padstow to Rock Swim in July in aid of Macmillan Cancer Care. A great achievement for anyone who takes part in this swim and Lucas, 10 was our youngest entrant. They enjoyed it so much there are plans to enter again next year and take along a few more mates this time!

On the wettest Sunday morning in September the Nippers attended a Surf life saving Club Festival at Harlyn Bay, a fun event with other local clubs for to take part in sea activities and games on the beach. This annual event is a great opportunity to get the Nippers together and enjoy some friendly competition and use their skills gained throughout the year.

Sadly, we have said farewell to one of our longest serving members, Steve Reynolds who has moved with his family to live in France. Steve has been involved in TSLC for many years, regularly assisting with training for both the Nipper and Juniors/Youth section and has shown great commitment to the Club.

BOSCASTLE, BOSSINEY AND TINTAGEL WASTE WATER TREATMENT SCHEME
UPDATE
SEPTEMBER 2010

South West Water with its partners Bam Nuttall, Nomenca and Pell Frischmann are pleased to announce the completion of the first comprehensive waste water treatment facility for the communities of Boscastle, Bossiney and Tintagel in North Cornwall.

As well as the waste water treatment works, the scheme included the construction of five new pumping stations at Boscastle New Road, Boscastle Forrabury, Tintagel Haven, Tintagel Castle Road and Bossiney Back Lane, and incorporated the existing Boscastle Harbour transfer and storm pumping stations.

During the project a number of archaeological discoveries were uncovered including cist graves in Tintagel and Forrabury. Cist graves are lined with upright stones, and are unusual to find in Cornwall.

A fallen standing stone, believed to be of later prehistoric to medieval date was found at Quoit, between Trevalga and Trethevy. It has been shaped from a large, local greenstone with a rounded base and tapering top. All the artefacts have been left in situ and covered securely.

Carl Thorpe, Archaeologist with the Historic Environment, Cornwall Council, who was involved with the project said, "South West Water's project has given us the opportunity to discover several medieval artefacts. It has helped increase our understanding of past activity in an area that has seen very little fieldwork before."

The scheme was required under the European Union's Urban Waste Water Treatment Directive and will provide secondary treatment to the waste water arising from Boscastle, Bossiney and Tintagel.

Project Manager Mike Court, South West Water, said: "We are pleased to have completed the Boscastle, Bossiney and Tintagel Waste Water Treatment Scheme. It has been a very challenging scheme to deliver, involving many different interfaces, and is one of the final two schemes in South West Waters Clean Sweep Programme. This scheme is a long term investment for the future and provides a significant improvement to the quality of the regions coastal waters."

South West Water and its partners wish to thank the Construction Liaison Group members, local residents and businesses for their patience and cooperation whilst these essential works have been carried out.

A final open day will be held in the Autumn to mark the end of the scheme. Full details will be posted on local notice boards and on the dedicated project website

Tintagel Garden Club

We opened our autumn programme with a delightful talk by Harry Colclough entitled 'For the Love of a Rose'.

On retiring from the police force Harry moved to Paignton to pursue his passion for growing begonias and roses - a successful exhibitor at shows around the country and now a respected national judge.

We were given a detailed account of the husbandry requirements for roses- a fertile and free draining soil; there followed descriptions of the different pruning techniques for Climbers, Ramblers and Hybrid Teas, stressing the importance of keeping the centres open of the latter. Disease control must be addressed throughout the year, with Jay's fluid being one of the best in controlling many problems, however timing is important as it will kill any growing shoot it comes into contact with. Finally, deadheading on a daily basis prolongs the flowering season.

Our speaker concluded with colourful slides showing the characteristics, subtle differences in colour and habit, of many varieties - and of course those with magnificent scent.

Harry enjoys talking about his plants and entertained our members over coffee, staying well after 10 o'clock - as he said, he had an excellent B&B in Tintagel for the night (Melrosa).

Our next event is our annual dinner - Saturday 9 October at Trethorne

Our next meetings at the Social Hall are -

Friday 15 October - Ken Wilcox - A Bucket Full of Plant Material

Friday 19 November - Mark Wash - Trecanna Nursery

TINTAGEL ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

The Legion was delighted with the number of people who attended the short Dedication service of the new memorial stone in Trevena Square. We feel that it is a great asset to the village and is something in which we can all be proud. Everybody who helped with donations and the erection of the stone cannot be thanked enough.

This year the Annual Remembrance service will be held at St. Materiana's Church on Sunday 14th November commencing at 10.45 hours at the Cenotaph followed by a service in the Church. Please come along and let us show our solidarity and appreciation to the forces for all they are doing in addition to Remembering those who gave their lives in the past. The Two Minutes silence will be observed in the village outside of King Arthur's hall on Thursday 11th November at 11.00 hours so do not forget 11.11.11 and attend this moving event.

TINTAGEL CRICKET CLUB

Another cricket season has come and gone far too quickly, however the club and village can look back with a great deal of pride and satisfaction. The first eleven playing in Division 3 east has ended up in a very creditable third. The team, full of locals was a good mixture of youth and experience expertly led by Bob Wilson. The victory at St Austell marked his retirement after nearly 30 years with the club. His contribution cannot be underestimated and we hope he will enjoy concentrating on his burgeoning music career.

The second eleven has had a much more difficult time with a lack of recognised bowlers and the failure to set challenging totals the main reason. A late surge of 3 victories on the trot lifted us from relegation candidates to a respectable fifth place. The batting of Tom Preston Evans and the wit and repartee of Callum Flew were notable features of the season

The Hartley's Home Care Evening league was particularly well fought with a number of local teams emerging as potential winners. The Wootons, St Gennys and the Mill House were able to field strong teams on occasions. In the end Port Isaac spoilt the dominance of the Cobweb in the league and the Wootons were victorious in the Sunday knockout.

The club is continuing to grow and develop, the pitch and surrounds is kept to a very high standard. Many visiting teams comment on the quality of both the field and the stunning views. Throughout the summer Junior coaching sessions have taken place, we are lucky to have some young, enthusiastic and qualified coaches who would love to see more participants next year. Those involved have enjoyed it and made great progress.

The village and indeed parish should be proud of the clubs contribution and we would welcome any interest and support in terms of participation, help or sponsorship when the new season starts!

Steve Brown, Tintagel Cricket Club.

REPORT FROM PCSO TERRY GROVES

I would like to remind everyone that as winter is coming on, residents should be aware of possible heating oil fuel thefts.

During the early hours of Saturday 10th September, possibly around 1.30 a.m., a large custom made wooden entrance gate was stolen from a property in Treknow. If anyone knows its whereabouts or if anyone has acquired a gate recently, could they please let us know.

PCSO Terry Groves, Camelford Police Station

TINTAGEL PRIMARY SCHOOL

Welcome back to all the pupils as we start a new school year here at Tintagel Primary School, and an especially warm welcome to the 12 new Reception children and their families. After School Clubs have started again and along with our usual Bike Club and Netball Club we have been fortunate enough to have some exciting new ones. These include Art, Tag Rugby, Science and Nature, and Drama Club which involves a performance at the Hall for Cornwall in January. Also for all you adults out there Debbie Lambert is running a Legs, Bums and Tums Club on Wednesdays 3:15pm – 4pm.

I am sure you have all noticed our fantastic new bike shelter which I am pleased to see is being well used. This was purchased with a grant from Cornwall Council as a result of a successful Travel Plan. The certificate for this is being presented to the school by local MP Dan Rogerson later this month.

Forthcoming events at the school this term include various Sports Festivals, Harvest Festival where we will be collecting food for the Wadebridge Food Bank, and of course our annual collection of Shoeboxes for Samaritan's Purse.

TINTAGEL MEMORIAL PLAYING FIELDS ASSOCIATION

The Playing Fields have had a very busy summer. The Skate Park Project is well under way at last, after a hesitant start and the base is almost complete. It is only a few days from the date of writing this before we expect the ramps to be fitted, and the area to be ready for use.

The quality of the grounds has improved yet again and we are proud to say that each of the grass playing areas is in fantastic condition in spite of a rather soggy summer.

Apart from the normal routine inspections that have to be passed in the course of each year, the TMPFA were selected at random from all the charities in the UK as one of the half dozen or so that are lucky enough to be inspected by the Charities Commission. The main point of the inspection seems to be to determine whether or not the TMPFA is of benefit to the public. We are confident that we will pass this test with flying colours. However, it just another bureaucratic hoop to be jumped through at a time when we are all finding it difficult to make ends meet financially.

We are working hard to develop a series of small fund raising events as well as one really big one. We hope to be publishing a list of these events in the near future and will try to have the list published in a later issue of this magazine.

NEWS FROM TINTANGELS, TINTAGEL CHILDRENS CENTRE - Alliance Community Networks

A variety of people from across North Cornwall have been enjoying a series of "Alliance Community Network" events held at Crackington, St Breward, Marhamchurch, Launceston, Egloshayle, Camelford and Tintagel. These were organised and delivered by Jenny Ahern, Cornwall Pre-school Learning Alliance together with Joanne Tennant, Child Care, Play & Development Manager for Children, Schools & Families.

The focus behind these network events is to bring together anyone who works within the early years sector e.g. parents, volunteer management committees, childminders, staff etc. to allow them the opportunity to network together, share their successes, promote good practice and receive relevant and up-to-date information within their local community.

Niki West, Pre-School assistant at Tintangels Pre-School said 'I am fairly new to the Pre-School and this has been a fantastic opportunity for me to meet others who work within the Early Years sector. I am looking forward to any future Alliance Community Network Events!' Other comments include "it's good to know we are not alone", "realization of our value within our community", "chance to meet with others and network" and "getting others points of view on the challenges we face within our sector!"

The photograph shows the event recently held at Tintangels Pre-School, with colleagues from Tintangels, Delabole Mini Minors, Little Acorns Nursery @ Camelford, St Kew Pre-School, Cornwall Pre-School Learning Alliance, Children, Schools & Families and childminders from Boscastle, Treknow and Delabole.

A note from our Local Cornwall Councillor

I had a report from County Hall on various surveys and analyses carried out in the County in recent times and will share a little with you under the heading : Cornwall, A Land Apart. It is encouraging to note that fewer young people are leaving the County now and that a good proportion of people moving into the County are of working age; nevertheless the increasing numbers of retired people coming into the West Country, and our own Cornish people, will put increasing pressure on services, especially the Social Care and Health Services.

We read about the “Devon Wall” but it is interesting to note regarding employment that 9,000 people come into the County to work each day and 10,000 of our residents commute to Plymouth. So we need to keep a sense of co-operation between our two Counties for the mutual benefit of our people and those across our border.

A few facts and figures on our County's waste may interest you: In 2009/10 the Council land-filled 191,761 tons of municipal waste, averaging 115 kilos per household. In Cornwall we recycle and compost 37% of our waste, our household weekly collections and recycling collections every other week amount to over 23 million individual collections per year at an approximate cost of £1.99 to collect, transport and landfill a black bag of rubbish and only 41p to collect and recover a box or bag for recycling.

If I can be of any help to anyone, please call me on 01840 770302.
Glenton Brown, Cornwall Councillor
