NEWS FROM TINTAGEL PARISH COUNCIL

ELECTIONS

The first week in May saw Town, Parish and County elections. The Parish Council was uncontested and therefore an election was not required. Former councillors Roger Wickett, Robert Flower, Mary Dyer, Thelma Dorman, Nicholas Spurdens, John Brooks, David Hodge and Max Roberts are joined by Michael Goward. Their first meeting being the Annual Meeting, was held on Monday 13th May and Cllr. Wickett was elected as Chairman with Cllr. Hodge being elected as Vice-Chairman.

Two vacancies still exist on the Parish Council and these will be filled by Co-option. The Notices are displayed on the parish noticeboards now. If you are interested in becoming a Parish Councillor, applications in writing should be submitted to the Clerk by noon on Wednesday 29th May.

The Annual Public Parish Meeting will take place on Wednesday 5th June at 7.00 p.m. at Tintagel Social Hall. Parishioners may air their views or ask questions on any parish matter. The Agenda for this meeting is already displayed on the Parish noticeboards.

PUBLIC CONVENIENCES

The conveniences at the Visitor Centre are now the sole responsibility of the Parish Council. Thanks must be expressed to Claire and Larry of Lunar Orbis for their kind offer of cleaning and locking the public conveniences. The Parish Council have also resolved to purchase the conveniences at Bossiney from Cornwall Council. Although the conveniences are currently closed, a programme of refurbishment works has been agreed with Cornwall Council and it is hoped that either way the conveniences will be re-opened before the Whitsun period. It may mean a short closure again in the near future in order for the refurbishment to be carried out.

PARISH NOTICEBOARD BY THE MEDICAL CENTRE

The parish noticeboard near the medical centre is due to be replaced. The new board may not be ready before the old one has to be taken down due to its poor state of repair. If this is the case, all notices normally displayed in this board will be available to view in the Visitor Centre.

HOUSEHOLDERS, TENANTS, HOLIDAY HOME OWNERS, VISITORS .....

PLEASE DO NOT LEAVE YOUR RUBBISH OUT OVERNIGHT IN BLACK BAGS – THIS IS THE MESS IT CAUSES. PLEASE ENSURE THAT YOUR RUBBISH IS PLACED OUT FOR COLLECTION IN A SUITABLE CONTAINER.

WE ARE ALREADY EXPERIENCING INCREASING AMOUNTS OF LITTER ON THE ROADS AND VERGES IN OUR PARISH – THIS WEEKLY MESS OUTSIDE MANY HOUSES AROUND THE PARISH ONLY ADDS TO THE PROBLEM.

TINTAGEL VISITOR CENTRE

WOULD YOU LIKE TO VOLUNTEER AT THE VISITOR CENTRE ?

Tintagel Visitor Centre is manned almost entirely by volunteers from the parish council and local people. The volunteers work for the satisfaction of building our community, assisting the thousands of tourists that visit Tintagel and the surrounding area and helping our beautiful village to thrive.

We are in need of a few more volunteers particularly during periods of sickness and holidays.

So if you'd like to be involved, whether you can offer just 1 or 2 hours a week or a morning or afternoon shift, we would welcome you to join our team. And although it's a worthy activity, it is great fun too!

If you are interested, please complete and return the Volunteer Registration Form overleaf or pop into the Centre for a chat.

The Clitheroe Kid

From 1957 to 1972 a diminutive Northern comedian called Jimmy Clitheroe, was the star of the radio programme and there were 290 episodes until it finished in 1972. Jimmy was aged 35 when he started the show but he could have passed as an 11 year old, as he had never grown physically beyond that age. He was only four-foot-three in height. A quarter of the population would listen in but by 1972 the large weekly audience of around ten and a half million, had dropped to just one million.

The programme was recorded with a studio audience and there were gales of laughter at the antics of Jimmy. He always dressed as schoolboy for the show, with a blazer and a cap to complete the illusion. Real children never appeared so Jimmy really did come across as a schoolboy with his childish humour. The one person who escaped Jimmy's quick wit on the radio was his mother. In real life his father had died and he lived with his widowed mother, and was devoted to her. Jimmy would not stand for his mother being mocked, even if it were only his fictional mother on the radio.

Among the cast were Tommy Riley (Mouth Organ), Patricia Burke (Mother), Peter Sinclair (Grandfather), Leonard Williams (Theodore Craythorpe and Harry Whittle), Danny Ross (Alfie Hall), Diana Day (Jim's sister, Susan). Many famous stars of the day were guests of the programme. Bob Monkhouse, Morecombe & Wise, Harry Worth, Terry Hall, Tessie 'O Shea, Robb Wilton and on and on.. When The Clitheroe Kid ended in 1972, the world fell apart for Jimmy Clitheroe. His female companion Sally, had recently died in a car crash and in the following year his mother also died, Within 12 months the main stays of his life had both died and on the day of his mother's funeral in June 1973, Jimmy Clitheroe was found dead at his home, he was just 51.

The Clitheroe Kid was a weekly must for devoted listeners and is a programme that can never be forgotten. Fond Memories of a gentler humour

We were runners up at the High 5 Netball Tournament which earned us a place at the North Cornwall Finals, and all our runners did really well at the Deli Farm Run. Huge congratulations to all the children that took part in these events and the adults that supported throughout.

We have had many visitors to the school this term including the RNLI for a beach safety talk, Camelford Karate club, Anti-Bullying Cornwall and not forgetting local members from "Open the Book" who kindly deliver an assembly on a weekly basis.

TINTAGEL GARDEN CLUB

Our speaker, Elizabeth Reeves, gave a beautifully illustrated talk describing the work of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission (CWGC).

The founder, Sir Fabian Ware a journalist, became commander of the British Red Cross at the start of WW1, being too old to enlist at 45.

Horrified by the appalling conditions and horrendous loss of life he had witnessed, he and his unit, recorded and cared for all the known, to ensure they were never forgotten.

After the end of the war there was a massive undertaking by CWGC to landscape and plant the cemeteries, over seen by the likes of Sir Edwin Lutyens and Gertrude Jekell. Care was taken to use species appropriate to the particular country-for England a red rose named Remembrance was often used.

These gardens serve as a focus for the families of the fallen, and a constant reminder that today we are able to live in comparative comfort and freedom due to the ultimate sacrifice of all those brave young men and women.

Elizabeth is one of our most valued speakers, gave us a unique account of these gardens and how they can play a powerful role in our lives today.

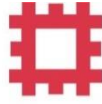

Next meetings at The Tintagel Social Hall.

TINTAGEL ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

It is with regret that I have to inform the Parish that the Tintagel Branch of the Royal British Legion will be closing in the next few weeks. The reason for the closure is that there has been no interest in keeping the Branch running.

The Branch was started in 1931 so it will be a sad day when the Standard is laid up. Many welfare cases have been helped over the years and much monies raised for the Poppy Appeal so thank you Tintagel for all you have done in the past.

HELP

Is there anybody in the village who would like to organise the Poppy Appeals in the future. You do not have to be a member of the British Legion to do this. If you are interested please contact John Stratton on 01840 770500.

TINTAGEL OIL BUYING GROUP

IT'S FREE AND COSTS YOU NOTHING TO JOIN

For the price of a phone call, you can save money !!!

The next orders will be placed on August 23rd and then on November 22nd this year.

To place an order phone John on 01840 770500 at the beginning of the week in which the order will be placed. If leaving a message give your name, address, telephone number and the amount of oil you require.

Anyone living in the parish is welcome to join.

Please note that due to the number of people involved phone calls will not be returned.

Tintagel Sea Angling Club Newsletter – June 2013

tintagelsac@tiscali.co.uk

March and April were very difficult months with prolonged cold easterly winds keeping the sea temperature down and the fishing very slow. This was very noticeable by the number of returns recorded by the CFSA, only seven fish were recorded from the whole of Cornwall during March the worse for several years. However, with sea temperatures now creeping up the summer species have started their return. The mackerel shoals have migrated shoreward and the bream and mullet have also started to run up the estuaries.

Congratulations go to Garry Boyde who won the collaboration match in April with a dab of 100%. Garry also came third in the St Columb Open with a Rockling over 100% winning him a ABU Atlantic beachcaster.

The Cornish Federation of Sea Anglers (CFSA) has launched a campaign to prohibit all enmeshing, entanglement and surround netting inside the ten metre depth contour of our coastal waters. An Information pack has been sent out to a number of tackle shops throughout Cornwall together with a petition to support this proposal. It is hoped that as many anglers as possible and other interested parties such as bird watchers, divers, conservationist and surfers will sign the petition and that the Cornwall Inshore Fisheries Conservation Authority will implement a byelaw to prohibit the use of nets in support of the campaign. The IFCA recently replaced the Sea Fisheries Committees (SFC) in England and there role is to manage a sustainable marine environment and inshore fishery. A link to the Cornwall Branch can be found here:

<http://www.cornwall-ifca.gov.uk/da/110417>

The new organisation is being monitored with great interest by recreation angling organisations such as the Bass Anglers Sportfishing Society (BASS) and National Mullet Club (NMC). The specific interest to the recreational organisations is the Minimum landing Sizes (MLS's) for commercial vessels these have been adopted from the old SFC but it is hoped that they will be increased for certain species such as bass, mullet and dab. Currently the MLS for bass is 37.5cm and female bass do not mature until they reach at least 42cms. The grey mullet MLS is 20cm but the female does not reach maturity until 47cms. Common sense would indicate that the IFCA would look at reviewing the old MLS's and furthermore involve recreation representatives in there discussions.

In the last newsletter I wrote about Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstal who had turned his attention to Marine Conservation Zones (MCZ's) with his "Save our Seas" campaign and his efforts to get you to write to your MP's to get them to consider adopting the recommendations of all 127 proposals not just the 31 chosen by the government. The consultation period has now ended and if you are one of the 24,000+ that sent an email you should expect a reply by July.

Forthcoming events during June and July include a club collaboration match with CADSAC on Sunday 9th June and the Grenville open to be held on the weekend of the 29th/30th June. The Cornish Lure Festival hosted by Ben at the Art of Angling is to be held on 5th/6th/7th July which coincides with the first Padstow Open held on the 6th/7th. We have another club collaboration match over the weekend of the 12th – 14th July with the last weigh in at 10.30pm. The target species for fish of the month in June is bass and in July, it is mullet.

The big tides in June are on the 24th & 25th with the full moon on the 23rd and the new moon on the 8th where sunrise will be at 5.10 & sunset at 21.29. In July the big tides are on the 24th & 25th and the full moon is on the 22nd the new moon is on the 8th when sunrise will be at 5.17 & sunset at 21.33.

The next general meeting will be held on Tuesday 4th June at the Wootons Hotel at 7.30pm.

Good luck and be safe

'OPEN THE BOOK' COMES TO TINTAGEL PRIMARY SCHOOL

Wednesday afternoon assemblies this term have a new look! We are using the Lion Storyteller Bible to meet characters in the Holy Bible, and find out how they lived and what they said and did. It's fun!

Members from several local churches have teamed up to act out events that the Storyteller reads from the Bible, using words and actions that are easy for all ages to understand.

There is no shortage of school members who are willing to join in the acting and sound effects! We've already met Adam and Eve, Noah, Abraham, Jacob and Joseph, and after half-term there will be events from the New Testament.

A growing number of local schools are 'opening the book'.

TINTAGEL MEMORIAL PLAYING FIELDS ASSOCIATION
ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 1st MAY, 2013
CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

In the last year we have seen a period of planning for the future and have gained detailed planning permission for an extension to the Pavilion to provide improved changing and shower facilities for all sports played at the Playing Fields. We are currently engaged in finding the funding for that project and its long term running costs. One of the possible areas which is being researched to assist with funding long term running costs is using green technology for the heating of the water for showers etc.

The Children's Play Area is in very good order and is in almost constant use. The rest of the grounds are in prime condition in spite of the curious weather pattern recently thanks to the groundsmen who give so much of their time free of charge. I think it appropriate again that we include in the minutes of this meeting a record of our gratitude to them for their ongoing efforts and support without which we would be unable to maintain the quality of the playing and recreation areas.

We have hosted Camelford RFC for the fourth season running and we are very grateful indeed for their contribution of assistance to the maintenance of the grounds. As evidenced by the Treasurer's report, we have managed to maintain a reasonable balance in the financial account over the past year.

Our success is that we have a huge number of people using the facilities. However, as I stated in last year's report there is always a cost to success. Yet again the cost is that litter is being left around the areas of the football pitches and the skate park, in spite of the provision of litter bins. This is both unsightly and a safety hazard and must be controlled. The Trustees reiterate that they insist that the clubs using those areas must take responsibility for controlling the litter and cleaning the area after use or else accept that the cost of litter removal must devolve to them. It cannot be left to the TMPFA to bear the cost unless there is a significant increase in the club leases to cover the cost of the removal of the litter.

Finally, organisations such as the Tintagel Memorial Playing Fields Association rely almost entirely on voluntary help to survive. I consider that the success of the TMPFA is due, in the most part, to the efforts of those particular Trustees who give most of their free time either directly or indirectly year after year for the good of the Association. I would again like to thank in particular the three most prominent Trustees: Steve Brown, Guy Keenan and David Littlejohns and also the voluntary Cricket Club groundsmen, Kevin O'Kelly and Dave Lane, for their selfless and continued efforts in keeping the Tintagel Memorial Playing Fields in such good condition.

R P Hasbrig-Hartley, Chairman of the Board of Trustees

All very welcome

There has been a Women's Institute in Tintagel since the early 1900's. Tintagel W.I. was formed first and met in the afternoon; Trevena came later and was for those who couldn't meet in an afternoon so this met in an evening. Hence the current W.I. is called Trevena-Tintagel because they joined together.

The current W.I. meets in the W.I. Gift House (next to the Old Post Office) on the third Monday of each month except August at 7.30p.m. We usually have a speaker, deal with whatever W.I. business there is and always have a cup of tea or coffee with biscuits either in the middle or at the end.

We have a varied range of speakers, some demonstrators – like the lady who taught us to spin wool! We've had in the past a potter complete with wheel, and the chance to have a go. We've been shown how to make splits and pasties, by our own folk. We've been out for meals and we have monthly group within the W.I. who eat out the first Tuesday of each month somewhere in Tintagel.

We have a craft group who meet alternate Wednesday afternoons at the moment, and a painting group who meet every Thursday afternoon.

We are always on the lookout for new members and new ideas for speakers or things to do. So if you are interested in coming to join us or just to see what we do, pop in on the Third Monday at 7.30 you will be most welcome. The cost for visitors is £3.50 for the evening which includes the tea and coffee and biscuits.

Our speaker on 17th June is Sonia Hemmings talking and hopefully showing us how to make Sugar Flowers. The meeting in July on the 15th will be a Social Evening with refreshments, for more details look out for the posters around the village.

If you wish to know more please ring our President Phyl Reddock on 779378.

NEWS FROM COUNCILLOR GLENTON BROWN

I must begin by thanking everyone who voted for my re-election on 2nd May, thank you so much.

It is my intention to serve everyone regardless of their political colours and to continue to make a voice heard from the northern end of the County.

At the time of writing this article we still do not know of the exact shape of the new administration, as the three main groups were only within a few seats of each other and my Lib-Dem group having the largest number of seats presented an appeal to the other parties and smaller groups if they would consider working for the best interests of Cornwall over the next four years which will be a difficult period with further cuts in our budgets, thus seeking to use the best talent in all parties for the good of Cornwall.

This appears to be the way forward and the Independents and the Lib-Dems are certainly in favour and it looks as if the Conservatives might be.

Following this election on 2nd May sees a cluster of smaller parties like Mebyon Kernow, UKIP, Labour and even one Green member. It has been suggested that the new administration will be a rainbow administration!!

In my next letter to you I may be able to give you more details, mean time I am available to help you if you care to contact me by e-mail gbrown@gov.co.uk or telephone 01840 770302

Glenton Brown

Dan Rogerson MP

Since I last wrote for this newsletter, people have been to the polls to elect new Cornwall Councillors. I would like to start by congratulating my Liberal Democrat colleague Glenton Brown on his re-election as Councillor for the Tintagel division

It is a privilege to represent my home area of North Cornwall in Parliament, and it is always my top priority to fight for a fair deal for local people in Parliament. I know that Glenton Brown is determined to get a fair deal for local people at County Hall too - we hope that the work we do locally, as well as in Parliament and at County Hall, repays the trust that you have placed in us. I look forward to working with Glenton, as well as with the new administration in Truro, to make sure that North Cornwall gets a fair deal from both the Government and from Cornwall Council.

Whilst the Cornwall Council elections are the big political news locally, in Parliament we had one of the big set-pieces of the political year – the State Opening of Parliament and the Queen’s Speech. Whilst this is often the talk of the town in the ‘Westminster village’ in and around Parliament, they will both have impacts on our day-to-day lives in Cornwall.

Aside from all the pomp and ceremony of the State Opening of Parliament, the Queen’s Speech outlines which new laws will be debated by Parliament in the coming year. We are now in the final 2 years of this Parliament and the Coalition Government, and whilst there are less radical reforms, I am pleased that many long-held Liberal Democrat policies are set to become law in order to help us build both a stronger economy and a fairer society including: introducing a new ‘flat rate’ pensions system to make saving for retirement simpler and fairer, especially to thousands of women and the self-employed; new laws to tackle anti-social behaviour; capping social care costs so that people don’t have to sell their homes to fund their long-term care; and more money to help families with the cost of childcare.

Camelford Stingers Small Club Big Success

A few months ago Camelford Stingers didn't think they would have a pool to train in, morale was low and swimmers were worried. Much to their delight the pool was saved and the determination of the swimmers to succeed has grown. This year saw the largest group of swimmers going to the County ASA Championships and Intermediate Championships, held in Bodmin and Penzance. Successes were achieved with Gold, Silver, and Bronze medals all round. All swimmers achieved new personal bests and a top seven in the BAGATS (British Age Group Categories). Well done to all the swimmers who took part. If you would like to know more about Camelford Stingers call in and see us at the Leisure Centre to talk to our coaches John Rhodes (Tuesday) and Lorna Tinkler (Thursday) for development or squad training, or talk to the Leisure Centre about Swim School which teaches children from Birth to Pre Club Level in readiness to join Camelford Stingers. We look forward to seeing you! Watch this space for more news about our club, coaches and swimmers.
